

Award for Energy Conservation

Mr. Chandrashekhar Bawankule, Honourable State Minister of Energy, Govt. of Maharashtra awarded Brahma Kumaris Educational Society with First Prize EC Award, during the 12th State Level Award Ceremony for Excellence in Energy Conservation and Management for their exceptional contribution in the field of Energy Conservation & sustainability activities.

Maharashtra Latur Centre In-charge BK Nanda bhen, Project Energy Auditor BK Kedar and BK Punya bhen received this award on April 27th, 2018 at The Westin Pune, Koregaon Park. The ceremony was organised by Mahaurja, Ministry of Energy, Govt. of Maharashtra. Attending the event were:

- Mr. Girish Bapat, Food Minister;
- Mr. Abhay Bakre, Director General, Bureau of Energy Efficiency, New Delhi;
- Dr. Vipin Sharma IAS, Director General MEDA
- & other dignitaries.

Total of 62 Awards were distributed to organizations, in the field of Engineering, Chemicals, Medicinal and Food, Metal and Steel, Paper Making, Oil and Chemicals, Textile, Thermal Power, Construction Business, Architecture, Government Buildings and Organizations working in energy conservation.

Government of Maharashtra has recognized the remarkable efforts of Brahma Kumaris in the field of energy conservation and sustainability. This is another milestone in the service history of the Brahma Kumaris.

Brahma Kumaris Energy Conservation Initiative