

Brahma Kumaris Raja Yoga Meditation at the People's Pilgrimage for action Hong Kong 28 Sept 2015

On 28th September 2015, Shanti, Indica and Pascal from Brahma Kumaris Raja Yoga Mediation Centre, Hong Kong participated in a 5 km People's Pilgrimage organized by Hong Kong Interfaith Climate Change Network (HKICN). Over 300 people participated from various faith groups together with the representative Ciara Shannon from Our Voices.

The purpose of this walk was to show the care and concern of all religious leaders and representatives for our planet to urge the world leaders a strong agreement climate change at the 21st conference of Parties summit in Paris Dec. 2015.

The Pilgrimage was conducted in the beautiful and lush green Lantau Island of Hong Kong. A beautiful opening ceremony with songs, music and silent meditation followed by some climate change related short talks created a peaceful and harmonious commencement of the Pilgrimage.

The Brahma Kumaris shared their Mission Statement and Environment Commitment on Climate Change. It was warmly applauded by the Pilgrims. HKICN has now posted it on the website of the Hong Kong People's Pilgrimage for the climate change. <https://hkicn.wordpress.com/campaigns-and-vigils-2/>

Ciara Shannon asked how many of those gathered were vegetarian. About 10% were. However, many of them were enthusiastic to know more about vegetarian/vegan diet practice.

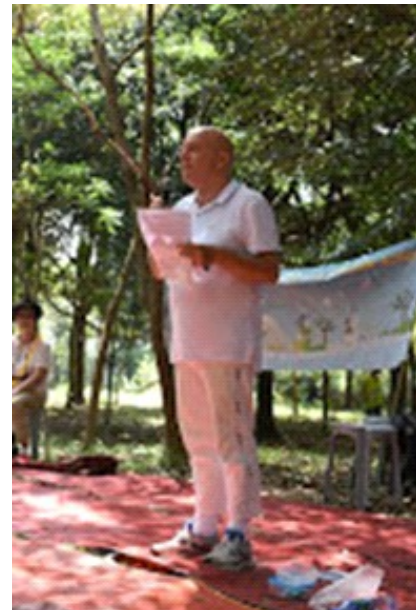

Pascal, from Brahma Kumaris, was asked to sing a song, however, eventually he could not share his song and lyrics due to time constraints. Pascal is singer and lyricist. His original lyrics reflect his love for Baba and our mission to create heaven where there is spring all round year. Pascal sang his original song at the "Court of Indra" BK celebration when all the Brahma Kumaris members gathered on Sunday 18th October 2015 during the visit of Charlie Hogg who was in Hong Kong for four days. We have attached his original Golden Age Lyrics and Climate Change Lyrics with this report.

Pascal and Kathie specially designed three banners for the event. All three are now displayed at the Cheung Chau harbour front, where many ferry passengers and pedestrians can view them. The images of the three banners are given below for any other BK environment event.

The Brahma Kumaris said their participation in this event felt inspired.

Please see below some photos of the event.

Three banners designed by Sister Kathie and Brother Pascal were displayed. To promote this event, the banners have been shown at Cheung Chau to all the teachers and students of the Buddhist school.

One banner includes a solar system extracted from the solar system field in Madubhan.

Lyrics for the Golden Age of Princes and Princesses at the “Court of Indra”

Carefree, now we are free, carefree

Music: Zimmer; rearranged and Lyrics: Pascal

Under the sky of love, protected by Your constant Canopy of bliss,
On the theatre, the sun, the moon, all stars shining at the infinite,
We have been playing our eternal parts of love, hate, peace, peacelessness, happiness, unhappiness,
You and us are the Mirrors of the unknown and infinite abode of light.

Here with us,
You are always encouraging us, sustaining us with much infinite Love, Peace, Happiness, Power, Purity,
You are making us so sweet, sweeter than all rivers of milk and sugar altogether couldn't be,
You are the only One who makes us beautiful, happy, free,
You are the only One who shows the unique path of freedom & to liberation, liberation of life,
You are the only One who has swept all shadows of sorrows, worries, foolishness, craziness...
You are the only One who gives, gives and gives...don't even ask!

Now we are free, carefree	You are the One who can
Now you make us free	Set our minds free
In front of You, Pure Lord	You are the One
Now I am free	Liberator of the world

2x

Gratitude to You, My Unique Mother, Father, Guide, Teacher
Gratitude to You, Pure Source of Light and Energy
Gratitude to You, Blissful, Powerful, Peaceful, Love-full, Pure One
Gratitude to You, Infinite and Great Donor
Gratitude to You, who makes us Kings and Queens
Gratitude to You, who comes and shifts the world into an infinite Beauty
Gratitude to you, Great Lover who loves us
How can I ever love You unconditionally

Under the sky of love, protected by a constant Canopy of bliss,
On the theater of life where the sun, the moon, all stars shining at the infinite,
We have been playing our eternal parts of love, hate, peace, peacelessness, happiness, unhappiness,
God and His Children are the Mirrors of the unknown and infinite element of light.

Here with us,
You are always encouraging us, sustaining us with much infinite Love, Peace, Happiness, Power, Purity,
You are making us sweet, so that the lion and the lamb can drink at the same pond together,
You are the only One who makes us happy, free,
You are the only One who shows the unique path of freedom,
You are the only One who can sweep away all shadows of sorrows, worries, foolishness, craziness...
You are the only One who gives, gives and gives...don't even ask!

Now we are free, carefree	You are the One who can
Now you make us free	Set our minds free
In front of You, Pure Lord	You are the One
Now I am free	Liberator of the world

2x both

Gratitude to You, My Unique Mother, Father,
Gratitude to You, who helps us to make the 5 elements – earth, water, air, fire, ether, pure, to sustain our life,
Gratitude to You, who makes our minds become pure to make this earth beautiful,
Gratitude to You, who loves all of us without distinction of races, genders, cultures, skins, religions, beliefs...
Gratitude to You, who has never divided the 5 elements of the earth,
Gratitude to you, Great Lover who loves us,
How can I ever love You unconditionally.
