

Collective meditation – Sanjay Gandhi National Park, India 2018

A Collective “Meditation for World Peace” program was organised by Brahma Kumaris Borivali Subzone centres at Sanjay Gandhi National Park, Borivali east on 22nd April 2018.

About 1300 students of Brahma Kumaris took part in this meditation and created a powerful atmosphere.

The program started with an hour of meditation. Then spiritual classes were organised in groups of some 50 students. Toli was distributed to all the students afterwards.

Mr. Anwar Ahmed, the Director of National Park, was felicitated by flowers, a shawl and a gift. BK Divyaprabhabehn, sub zone incharge of Borivali, Mumbai, thanked the director for giving permission to conduct the program.

The program ended with a song in remembrance of Param Atma Shiva.
