

The Spiritual Ambassador to Our Voices, Sister Jayanti Kirpalani, from the Brahma Kumaris, has joined the Pilgrimage Walks showing the concern for climate change. Approximately 100 students of the Brahma Kumaris and retreat guests joined the walk.

They walked in silence in the early morning of Wednesday 28th October at the Brahma Kumaris Spiritual Headquarters in the lush hills of Mount Abu, Rajasthan, India.

Everyone enjoyed connecting with nature and the Supreme. The children from local community in the village nearby also joined.

Starting the early morning walk from Gyan Sarovar Campus at Brahma Kumaris Spiritual headquarters, Mount Abu, India

Pilgrimage walk - local community joining

The Group of 80 pilgrims arrived in the valley of Salgaon Village, Mount Abu

Sister Jayanti and all meditating for the environment and for peace

Pilgrimage Musician playing the Indian Conchshell