

I'm a spiritual ecologist, homeopath, naturopath, vegan, sacred activist & messenger of hope.

Juan Vazquez NGO Youth Representative, Brahma Kumaris at the United Nations

Juan is a professional Homeopath and Naturopath. He has participated in the last five UN Conferences on Climate Change as well as the RIO+20 Conference on Sustainable Development. Juan has a genuine and deep interest in the link between spirituality and the environment, and likes to share it with others. This interest inspired him to create several green and youth programs, with a spiritual perspective such as Eco Shanti and Om Café, in Montreal Canada the place where he resides, and these programs have already taken root in different countries. He works with interfaith young leaders and currently working with GreenFaith for the next LatinAmerican interfaith convergence in Rio. He is a Climate Reality Leader with the Climate Reality project, he has been consistently involved with YOUNGO throughout the UNFCCC conferences
