

STRENGTHENING PEACEFUL PATHWAYS TO SUSTAINABLE SOLUTIONS

In this time of crisis and opportunity our workshop will focus on the co-benefits of working together in peace, for peaceful solutions. We will hear from science, faith, politics, spirituality, and health. The event is designed in an integrative format to facilitate a space that accelerates vision, authentic communication, and unity; helping us refine our strategies and strengthen our ability to implement peaceful and inclusive solutions that offer support to all.

Moderator:

Julia Grindon-Welch, Brahma Kumaris Representative to UN, New York

Speakers:

Thomas Bruhn, Institute for Advanced Sustainability Studies (IASS)

Martin Frick, Senior Director for Policy and Programme Coordination of the UNFCCC

Gabrielle Martin, Head of Programs and Events, Brahma Kumaris, Australia

Rev. Dr. Neddy Astudillo, Director for Training and LatinoAmerica, Green Faith

Dr. Nicole de Paula, Klaus Töpfer Sustainability Fellow/Global Health Asia Institute

DESA PAVILION

TUESDAY 3 DECEMBER, 2019

2:43 – 4PM

Co Hosts:

Brahma Kumaris World Spiritual University Institute for Advanced Sustainability Studies