

Online Event #1

The World We Want

TUESDAY 27 OCTOBER 2020

9:00-10:30 AM GMT | 10:00-11:30 AM CET |
7:00-8:30 PM AEDT

Register here

Our first online session will provide a space to explore the response offered by different faith traditions to the current climate crisis and COVID-19. The discussion will focus on how these perspectives might help us to navigate through this precarious moment.

- ▶ Reverend James Bhagwan, Pacific Conference of Churches (Fiji)
- ▶ Iyad Abu Moghli, Faith for Earth UNEP (Nairobi)
- ▶ Liza Zogib, DiversEarth and Chair of the IUCN Religion, Spirituality, Environmental Conservation and Climate Justice Specialist Group (Switzerland)
- ▶ Mohamed Mohideen, Islamic Council of Victoria (Australia)
- ▶ The event will be moderated by Faith Biddle, from the Friends World Committee for Consultation (UK)

Join with friends around the world to learn, discuss and explore climate action

This interactive event will include a breakout session and will be held in English.

This event is hosted by Brahma Kumaris World Spiritual University.

A 3-part interactive online series organised by the Interfaith Liaison Committee to the UNFCCC
Every Tuesday, October 27th-November 10th

