

AGRICULTURE AND RURAL DEVELOPMENT WING

Rajyoga Education and Research Foundation

BRAHMA KUMARIS

NATIONAL FARMERS DAY REPORT 2021

ANDRA PRADESH

Velagapudi (Amaravati, Andhra Pradesh): Brahma Kumaris honoured more than 50 farmers on the occasion of Farmers Day in Velagapudi village. Sisters BK Radha, BK Uma, BK Veni Akkayya, BK Vindya and BK Mavullamma were present on this occasion.

Ananthavaram (Amaravati, Andhra Pradesh): Brahma Kumaris took the initiative to raise awareness on Yogic farming, Holistic Living and to honour and appreciate all the responsible farmers for their contributions to society. Sisters BK Uma & BK Padmaja felicitated villagers of Ananthavaram.

Dondapadu (Amaravati, Andhra Pradesh): Aiming to apprise farmers and villagers to do organic yogic farming, a program was organized on National Farmers Day. BK Jaya and BK Sidhu honoured farmers of Dondapadu Village.

Rayapudi (Amaravati, Andhra Pradesh): On National Farmers Day, BK Padmaja And BK Sirisha honoured progressive farmers of Rayapudi village.

Venkata Palem (Amaravati, Andhra Pradesh): Farmers were encouraged to practise meditation for healthy and high crop yield. The sustainable yogic farming project was also shared with the villagers. BK Radha, BK Sirisha, BK Radha, BK Uma and BK Nagamani were present at this event.

Nekkallu (Amaravati, Andhra Pradesh): BK Ratna and BK Madhavarao organized an awareness session and felicitation program for farmers.

Pedaparimi, Guntur (Andhra Pradesh): On the occasion of National Farmers Day, awareness of the benefits of organic yogic farming was raised. Also, farmers were felicitated at Peddaparimi Village by BK Manasa & BK Ratna

Kakinada (Andhra Pradesh): Brahma Kumaris celebrated National Farmers Day by honouring progressive farmers and dignitaries with godly gifts and felicitation shawl. Brahma Kumaris inspired the gathering to adopt only organic methods in farming and practice meditation for a healthy mind and high crop yield.

Vedullavalasa, Vizianagaram (Andhra Pradesh): BK Someswari honoured organic farmers at their farms. They were presented godly gifts and felicitation shawl.

Durgada (Andhra Pradesh): As a part of National Farmers Day, the Brahma Kumaris branch of Durgada arranged a program for farmers to apprise them about the benefits of organic yogic farming.

Anakapalle, Visakhapatnam (Andhra Pradesh): Brahma Kumaris Agriculture and Rural Development Wing and Brahma Kumaris Anakapalle organized a program on National Farmers Day. BK Veni addressed the farmers about the importance of organic farming, various methods and also the effect of positive and pure thinking while farming. 21 farmers were felicitated in this programme. Smt. K.Nilima Garu (Corporator), B. Appala Naidu (Dairy Centre Incharge) also participated in this program. BK Satya, BK Shymala, BK Someswari and BK Lalitha were present in the program.

Parvathipuram (Andhra Pradesh): Felicitation program was arranged for the farmers on the auspicious occasion of National Farmers Day. The godly gift was presented to the farmers by the Brahma Kumaris.

Vijayawada (Andhra Pradesh): On National Farmer's Day, Brahma Kumaris sisters from Vijayawada went to different villages to enlighten farmers about sustainable yogic agricultural practices. As part of it, the photos were taken in Thullur village, Amaravati. Sister BK Bharati addressed 150 Farmers and also media personals. On behalf of all farmers, sisters felicitated brother Appa Rao.

Garividi Mandal, Vizianagaram (Andhra Pradesh): Mandal MPP M.Vishweswara Rao, Mandal Agriculture Officer Sangeeta, MDO, 20 Organic farming Farmers and Village Assistants participated in the National Farmer's Day program organized by the Brahma Kumaris.

Orvakal (Andhra Pradesh): The cultural program and felicitation of farmers marked National Farmers Day

Munagapaka, Visakhapatnam (Andhra Pradesh): On the occasion of National Farmers Day, a programme was organized which was aimed to inspire farmers to use organic methods of farming. A total of 21 farmers participated in this programme. All the farmers were felicitated for their untiring services. The chief guests were Agricultural Officer Ch. Pavani, ZPT P.SwamiSatyanarayana, Village head D.Krishna and Ex-ZPT M.Sanjeeva Rao.

Vompolu, Visakhapatnam (Andhra Pradesh): The Brahmakumaris Vompolu felicitated 30 farmers on the occasion of National Farmers Day. Farmers were inspired to use organic farming methods and also learn Rajyoga meditation. The Village head G.Suribabu addressed the programme saying that positive thoughts of the farmers help them yield quality food. Ex-Mptc V.Govind also participated in this programme

Narasannapeta (Andhra Pradesh): The National Farmers Day was celebrated by the Brahma Kumaris of Narasannapeta. Farmers were inspired to use only organic products in their farms. Everyone was apprised about the benefits of sustainable yogic farming.

Amalapuram (Andhra Pradesh): Farmers were felicitated with a shawl and godly gifts. They were encouraged to do organic yogic farming. Nalla. Pavan, BJP Kisan Morcha National Committee member; V. Dorababu, BJP Kisan District Incharge; U. Bhaskarrao Garu, State Convenor of Agriculture Economic Center; B. Adinarayana, Agriculture Marketing Chairman from Amalapuram were among the dignitaries who graced the occasion

Chuchukonda, Visakhapatnam (Andhra Pradesh): Brahmakumaris felicitated 21 farmers on the special occasion of National Farmers Day in Chuchukonda, Visakhapatnam. BK Syamala and BK Someswari addressed the farmers saying that the pure thoughts of the farmers can reach every home through their yield. Hence, farmers should learn Rajayoga meditation to increase inner stability and peace. The guests K.Nagesh Rao(Village Horticulture Dept), K. Naidu(President of Dairy Centre) and D.SuriAppa Rao(Sarpanch) participated in this programme

Somayajulapalli, Orvakal (Andhra Pradesh): 500 farmers and the public participated in the programs organized by the Brahma Kumaris Somayajulapalli connected centers in Manchalakatta, Hussaina Puram, Gadivemula, Darsi, Gani village and Guttapadu.

Bobbili, Vizianagaram (Andhra Pradesh): 40 farmers took their inspirations & blessings from the program "Agriculture and Rural development - Swatchaata - Sahayogam - Samruddhi" organized by the Brahma Kumaris Bobbili. Asst. Director of Agriculture Malakondayya, Mandal Agriculture Officer Shyamsundar were the chief guest. BK Rajeswari coordinated the event. 4 ideal farmers were felicitated

Brahmanapalle, Orvakal (Kurnool, Andhra Pradesh): 70 Farmers and Village head attended the Farmers Day program organized by Brahma Kumaris Brahmanapalle. BK Radhakrishna and BK Pradeep encouraged farmers to use organic products and do sustainable yogic farming.

Garbham, Vizianagaram (Andhra Pradesh): Brahma Kumaris took the initiative to apprise the farmers about sustainable yogic farming. They were motivated to use only organic products

Parvathipuram, Vizianagaram (Andhra Pradesh): Brahma Kumaris Parvathipuram conducted a program "Swatchaata - Sahayogam - Samruddhi" at Shiv Shakti Bhavan, Parvathipuram. The chief guests of the program were Asst. Director of Agriculture Y. Vijay Kumar, Mandal Agriculture officer Rekha, BK Vedi from Bangalore, Rajyogini BK Sasikala from Brahma Kumaris and Parvathipuram Incharge Rajyogini BK Gnanarathnam were associated in the program. 50 farmers were felicitated with godly gifts.

Chapara, Srikakulam (Andhra Pradesh): - On the occasion of National Farmers Day, a program was arranged for farmers. Progressive farmers were honoured on this day.

Chittoor (Andhra Pradesh): In the National Farmers Day program held at the Brahma Kumaris Chittoor centre, farmers were honoured with a felicitation shawl and were given a chance to share their experiences of doing farming with natural methods

Prathipadu (Andhra Pradesh): Brahma kumaris felicitated farmers with a shawl and godly gifts. Deputy Director of Agriculture Naga Kumar, Agriculture Officer Gangadhar and Govt Hospital Chairman Reddy Naidu were among the dignitaries who participated in this program of National Farmers Day

Kasibugga, Srikakulam (Andhra Pradesh): A seminar was organized to motivate farmers to adopt organic yogic farming, marking National Farmers Day. Sister Varalakshmi was present during this event.

Aganampudi, Visakhapatnam (Andhra Pradesh): Brahmakumaris felicitated 128 farmers giving them great inspiration and enthusiasm on the occasion of National Farmers Day. They were acknowledged and greeted for their untiring service to mankind. Dr M. Bharat Lakshmi (assistant Director of Research, MG Ranga Agricultural University), Dr S.D. Jamuna, Scientist, Principal (Agricultural Polytechnic) were the guests of this programme. BK Someswari, BK Satya and BK Parvathi also participated in this programme

Muralinagar, Visakhapatnam (Andhra Pradesh): Brahmakumaris felicitated farmers on National Farmers Day. 54 farmers participated in this programme. The Corporator Mr Vavilala Prasad, Ret. Principal of Polytechnic Colleges Dr V.Nirmala and Subba Rao inaugurated the event with candle lighting. BK Aparanji, BK Parvathi and BK Hymavathi were also present on this occasion

Saluru, Vizianagaram (Andhra Pradesh): 75 years of India's Independence was celebrated by honouring farmers and holding an awareness session on National Farmers Day. The program was graced by MPTC Uma Maheswara Rao and Village head Santoshi.

Gollaprolu (Andhra Pradesh): Under the guidance of Brahma Kumaris Additional Administrative Head of East Godavari Dist. BK Meera and Brahmakumaris Gollaprolu Incharge BK Chandrakala, the program for farmers awareness on the benefits of organic yogic farming was arranged. 95 farmers attended this program. ADA Nageswarao, ATMA Foundation Ex-Chairman K.Raja, and D.Bhaskarrao felicitated all the farmers.

Kadapa and Vallur (Andhra Pradesh): The grand celebrations of National Farmers Day was held at Kadapa and Vallur of Andhra Pradesh. Progressive farmers and dignitaries were felicitated with godly gifts and Brahma Kumaris yogic farming book.

Narsipatnam (Andhra Pradesh): The grand celebrations of National Farmers Day was held in the presence of the former Minister of Andhra Pradesh. On this occasion, farmers were honoured with a felicitation shawl

ASSAM

Kamrup, Guwahati (Assam): As a tribute to India's 75th year of Independence, the farmers were honoured with gifts of Godly literature on National Farmers Day. Dr D. N. Kalita, Head and Principal Scientist, KVK, Kamrup; Dr Hemen Kalita, Principal Scientist, RARS, Shillongoni and Senior ADO of Dept. Of Agriculture, Mr Mukul Batman were the dignitaries who graced the occasion

Guwahati (Assam): The special guests of the National Farmers Day occasion were Dr Daradi Priyam, Scientist, Krishi Vigyan Kendra; Grindra Nath Sharma, Development Officer, Rampur Agriculture Dept and Kamal Kumar Mali, Secretary, Indian Industrial Establishment. BK Chhaya and BK Supta honoured the farmers and special guests. BK Rajiv highlighted the importance of organic yogic farming. More than 150 farmers availed themselves of this program.

Guwahati (Assam): The importance of sustainable yogic farming was shared with the farmers and villagers. Brahma Kumaris sisters addressed the gathering and briefed about the different projects of the Agriculture and Rural Development Wing.

Mangaldoi (Assam): 50 farmers participated in the program organized on National Farmers Day. SDO Dr Bhaben Kalita, DFO Pradipt Barua, and MLA Gurujyoti Das were the chief guest of the program

BIHAR

Areraj (Bihar): Farmers felicitation program was held at the Brahma Kumaris Areraj center where BK Meena honoured farmers with godly gifts and floral garland

Bhagwanpur, Vaishali (Bihar): At Shanti Shakti Sarovar, the Brahma Kumaris center, the Farmers' Felicitation Program was held. Also, on the occasion, Senior Rajyoga Teacher and Sub-zone Incharge of Bihar and Jharkhand BK Rani shared the benefits of organic yogic farming

CHHATTISGARH

Nawapara Rajim (Chhattisgarh): Land Revenue Officer Yogendra, BK Narayan, Women Farmer Damini, BK Pushpa and Farmer Brother Ganesh inaugurated the Farmers Day program by lighting the divine lamp.

Bhilai (Chhattisgarh): At the Peace Auditorium of Raj Yoga Bhawan, Brahma Kumaris Bhilai center, a Farmer's Day program was celebrated. Incharge of Brahma Kumaris Bhilai BK Asha honoured farmers on this occasion. Farmers participated from villages like Karanja B, Jevra Sirsa, Bhatgaon, Arasnare, Nankatthi, Medesara, Kachandur, Junwani, Jhenjhari, Dhaur

Baloda (Chhattisgarh): 127 farmers from about 29 villages of Baloda region participated. District member Mangtaram Jangde, Agriculture Development Officer A.D. Diwan, Chief farmer Rudra Pratap Singh and Sarpanch Babita Sahu were present. The Village heads, Deputy village heads and Agricultural Extension Officers were also present along with the farmers. BK Manju from Bilaspur addressed all the farmers and felicitated them with a shawl. The inspirations were shared to widely adopt traditional farming of India - organic yogic farming for economic, social and mental empowerment of farmers

Nawapara Rajim, Raipur (Chhattisgarh): Hemant Sahu, Government Lecturer, graced the event as the honourable guest and addressed the farmers as the strength and pride of the Nation. Farmer Prem Shankar Sahu also shared his inspirations

Bilaspur (Chhattisgarh): Brahma Kumaris at Krishi Vigyan Kendra, Bilaspur, honoured farmers and shared experiences of success achieved from Sustainable Yogic Farming.

Rajnandgaon (Chhattisgarh): Felicitation to farmers marked the 75th India's Independence celebration on the National Farmers Day at the Brahma Kumaris program.

Batoli, Ambikapur (Chhattisgarh): A seminar for farmers on sustainable organic and yogic farming was held on National Farmer's Day, marking Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav

DELHI

Majlis Park, Adarsh Nagar (Delhi): Delhi State Chief Sanjay Raghav was the chief guest of the National Farmers Day program held by Brahma Kumaris of Adarsh Nagar. Members of Bharatiya Kisan Union Bhanu and media personnel were garlanded with flowers. The awareness of the need for organic yogic farming was raised.

GUJARAT

Viramgam (Gujarat): BK Dharmishta honoured farmers in the National Farmers Day program organized at APMC Viramgam. Farmers were encouraged to do organic yogic farming.

Olpad (Gujrat): Senior Rajyoga Teacher BK Tripti felicitated farmers and apprised the value of yogic farming in addition to organic farming practices

Mehsana (Gujarat): Brahma Kumaris of Mehsana celebrated National Farmers Day as 'Farmers Felicitation Day' at Godly Palace which observed the participation of 250 farmers. Chairperson of Agriculture and Rural Development Wing of Brahma Kumaris BK Sarla addressed the farmers. Chief Speaker and Training Officer of Cordet IFFCO from Kalol, BK Jignesh Prajapati says farmers work to increase the prestige of the Nation. Joint Rebellion Regulator F.K Mod, L.K Patel, Assistant Director of Farmers Training Center in Mehsana; Joint Farming Regulator J.V. Upadhyay also shared their valuable viewpoints and best wishes.

Kasturbadham, Rajkot (Gujarat): In the premises of Happy Village, Kasturbadham, an event for farmers was held where BK Rekhaben and BK Lakshmi honoured Lakhapar village head Ketan Kamani, Mahika village head Babu Moliya, Mahika vice village head Bharat Moliya and farmers practising yogic farming with godly gifts. Farmers shared their valuable experiences of farming. BK Pusha shared the significance of the occasion. A pledge was taken by all to do organic yogic farming. BK Anju well coordinated the whole program.

Viramgam, Ahmedabad (Gujarat): Chairman Lakhubha and Director Dahyabhai Patel from Viramgam Taluka, Gujarat, Dolatpur Village head Rasikbhai Patel and Chairman of Sahkari Mandli Manu Darbar from the village Bhojva were the eminent personalities who were present at the event organized on the National Farmers Day by the Brahma Kumaris branch of Ahmedabad

Kapadvanj (Gujarat): National Farmers Day talk was given by BK Mala. Head of Kheda District Farmers Association Mohanbhai Patel and Retd. Agriculture Professor Natubhai Patel graced the event as the main guest. Village heads and progressive farmers were presented with godly gifts as a token of honour.

Mehul Nagar, Rajkot (Gujarat): 90 farmers took advantage of the awareness session held on National Farmers Day. Detailed information about sustainable yogic farming was shared with all Shuklatirth, Bharuch (Gujarat): Almost 35 people participated in the seminar organized on National Farmers Day. The keynote speakers were Maharshi and Rajesh Dave from Bharuch. Everyone pledged to adopt sustainable organic yogic farming practices in their fields and lead their life with spiritual values.

Kavant, Chhota Udepur (Gujarat): A Farmer's seminar was organized in which the newly elected Village head Mati Sheela, Mahesh Rathwa and other elected members of the Village Council were welcomed and honoured by the Kavant service center Brahmakumari of Chhota Udepur district. Brahma Kumaris Chhota Udepur Incharge BK Monika and Brahma Kumaris Kavant BK Hema bestowed their blessing upon all and shared their inspirations on the organic yogic farming benefits.

Umarpada (Gujarat): The felicitation ceremony was held at the Umarpada service centre of Brahma Kumaris. Godly gifts and holy sweets were distributed to invited farmers.

Vankal (Surat, Gujarat): The National Farmers Day was celebrated by honouring farmers with a shawl and godly gifts.

Kadodara (Gujarat): Village Heads Felicitation program marked the National Farmers Day at the Brahma Kumaris service centre.

Dolatpura (Gujarat): On National Farmers Day, the Brahma Kumaris arranged a program for farmers at Dolatpura. BK Sisters praised farmers for their enormous contribution and encouraged them to spread awareness on the merits of practising organic yogic farming.

Kalol (Gujarat): The celebration of National Farmers Day was held by the Brahma Kumaris in Kalol service centre where farmers shared their experiences of their success from organic yogic practices in their fields. They were honoured with the godly gift of Brahma Kumaris agricultural literature.

Amroli, Surat (Gujarat): Felicitation of the farmers was done by presenting them with the godly gifts at Brahma Kumaris Amroli centre.

Sevni (Gujarat): At the Brahma Kumaris center, the farmers were felicitated with godly gifts of a slogan to honour them for their hard work to feed the Nation.

Sarthana (Gujarat): The farmers day program began with BK Sisters along with dignitaries lighting the divine lamp, followed by sharing the significance and positive results from organic yogic farming practices.

Pasodara, Surat (Gujarat): The Farmers felicitation program was organized by the Brahma Kumaris and an awareness talk on Sustainable Organic and Yogic Farming was given by BK Sister.

Parvat, Surat (Gujarat): Felicitating farmers and sharing the significance of organic practices in farming along with yogic lifestyle, marked National Farmers Day in Brahma Kumaris center of Parvat.

Radhanpur (Gujarat): Rajyogini BK Sister Premila explained the importance of yogic farming in the program organized for farmers. BK Snehal and BK Pinal briefed on Rajayoga meditation. About 50 farmers took advantage of the program.

Shahpur, Gandhinagar (Gujarat): Felicitation of farmers and discussion on organic yogic farming marked National Farmers Day.

Kadi (Gujarat): A seminar on sustainable organic and yogic farming marked National farmers Day celebrations for farmers and local villagers. The program also included an in-depth discussion about the activities and different projects of the Agriculture and Rural Development Wing

Visnagar (Gujarat): Brahma Kumaris Visnagar honoured farmers with floral garland and gifted them godly gifts. 100 people availed of this National Farmers Day program.

Thordi, Bhavnagar (Gujarat): Brahma Kumaris took the initiative to motivate farmers to use organic products for farming and practice meditation for healthy and high crop yield

Kobdi, Bhavnagar (Gujarat): On National Farmers Day, an awareness session on sustainable yogic agriculture was held for farmers.

Sodvadra, Bhavnagar (Gujarat): Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav was celebrated with organizing a program for farmers to apprise them for sustainable organic and yogic farming practices.

Fariyadka, Bhavnagar (Gujarat): Farmers were enlightened to practice sustainable yogic and organic farming. This initiative was celebrated on National Farmers Day

GOA

Mapusa (Goa): National Farmers Day program was inaugurated with lighting the divine lamp by Praveen Kumar, Director of ICAR, Rameshwar Meenaji, Senior Scientist from Karnal, BK Kanta, BK Jesu, Dr Kishore Rana, BK Shobha and BK Kanta from Gujarat. Participants of the program were apprised about the depts of sustainable organic and yogic farming

HARYANA

Jind (Haryana): Farmers felicitation ceremony marked National Farmers Day by the Brahma Kumaris Jind branch. Also, farmers were encouraged to use organic products in farms and practice meditation for healthy and high crop yield.

Sonipat (Haryana): National Farmers Day was observed by the Brahma Kumaris Sonipat at their service center Sukh Shanti Bhawan. BK Sister Pramod and BK Sunita inspired all to seed good karmas in their lives and shared details of the Brahma Kumaris Sustainable Yogic Farming project. More than 250 farmers availed of this event. Shashi Vasundhara, SDM, Sonapat; Dr Rajesh Vats, DFSO, Sonapat; Dr Parvinder Malik, Agriculture Department, Sonapat were among the dignitaries of this event.

Tohana (Haryana): Bk Sister Vandana and BK Sister Kaushalya honoured S. D.O.D. Charanjit Singh and organic farmers from different villages by presenting them with godly gifts. Farmers were apprised about the significance of organic yogic farming.

Deeghot (Haryana): As the chief guest, the head of the village Mr Jitendra graced the occasion of the National Farmers Day program by the Brahma Kumaris Deeghot. Brother BK Babu and BK Manisha Rani were also present. BK Rajendra shared the depts of traditional ways of farming. BK Raj apprised about all about the significance of the yogic lifestyle. The dignitaries were honoured with felicitation shawl.

Jind (Haryana): A program for farmers on National Farmers Day was organized in Naguran village of Jind in which members of Agriculture and Rural Development Wing BK Vijay and BK Neelam addressed the farmers and inspired them for yogic farming in addition to organic practices in agriculture.

Rajgarh Dhobi, Tohana (Haryana): National Farmers Day program was organized in the village Rajgarh Dhobi of Tohana. BK Sister Vandana and sister Kaushalya felicitated farmers. On the occasion, Dr Sadhuram from Narwana shared her experiences of organic farming.

Sonipat (Haryana): At Sukh Shanti Bhawan, Sonipat Brahma Kumaris center, an agricultural awareness session for farmers was organized. BK Pramod and BK Sunita urged everyone to plant the seeds of best deeds in their lives and use the spiritual energy in farming for healthy growth in fields. Details about sustainable yogic farming were shared. More than 250 farmers took benefit of this occasion

Kadma (Haryana): Brahma Kumaris center Incharge BK Vasudha spoke on the wondrous experiments and results of sustainable organic farming at Tapovan, Mount Abu. Agriculture expert Dr Rajendra Kaushik shared his views on organic farming. Agriculture expert Nityanand Yadav also stressed the need for organic farming. Farmers doing pioneering work in organic farming were honoured with mementoes on behalf of the Brahma Kumaris.

HIMACHAL

Solan (Himachal Pradesh): National Farmers Day was celebrated by organizing an awareness session and honouring progressive farmers. The whole event was successfully held under the guidance of BK Sushma.

Arki, Solan (Himachal Pradesh): 75 years of India's Independence was marked with the celebrations of National Farmers Day by the Brahma Kumaris branch of Arki. BK Savitri apprised farmers about sustainable organic and yogic farming as the need of an hour. Also, Rajyoga meditation was practised by all.

Sheel, Solan (Himachal Pradesh): In Sheel village, the National Farmers Day program was held which was graced by the head of the panchayat and farmers. BK Sister Sushma coordinated the whole event

Waknaghat, Kandaghat, Solan (Himachal Pradesh): A seminar on sustainable organic and yogic farming marked National Farmers Day by the Brahma Kumaris Kandaghat sub-service center. BK Babita and farmers had a detailed discussion on the organic yogic farming benefits.

Chhogtali, Rajgarh (Himachal Pradesh): Susitanable yogic farming was introduced to the farmers. Rajgarh service center Incharge BK Surekha coordinated the whole event

JHARKHAND

Gumla (Jharkhand): Farmers felicitation program was organized which observed the participation of hundreds of farmers. Former Welfare Association President Sahdev Mahto was present as the special guest. Brahma Kumaris Gumla Incharge BK Shanti shared the organic and yogic farming significance

Lohardaga (Jharkhand): Farmers were felicitated with godly gifts at the National Farmers Day program observed by the Brahma Kumaris Lohardaga in which District Agriculture Officer Shivkumar Ram, Brahma Kumaris Lohardaga Incharge BK Shanti were the chief guest and Dr Hemant, Neeraj Prasad, Sahdev Mahto, Naval Kishore Sahdev graced the event as the special guest.

JAMMU

Jammu (Jammu and Kashmir): Prof. J.P Sharma, Honorable Vice-Chancellor, Sher-e-Kashmir University of Agricultural Science & Technology was the Chief Guest and KK Sharma, Director Agriculture, Jammu was the Guest of Honour. Dr Rahul (Scientist IIIM, Jammu) appreciated the sustainable yogic farming project of the Brahma Kumaris. Dr Ashok Gupta, Former Director of Project ATMA, Samba was also present in the program. BK Sudershan, Incharge of Brahmakumaris JK/Ladakh & Zonal coordinator of sports wing RERF Northern Zone bestowed her blessings upon all.

KARNATAKA

Bhiradi (Karnataka): BK Pushpa from the Raibag centre shared the message of farmers empowerment and the role of Rajyoga Meditation in that. BK Shekhar from Mount Abu and BK Lakshman inspired all to do organic yogic farming. Guests of the occasion were the President of Bhiradi Gram Panchayat Rupa Appa, Tara Tonne, Rekha Kanigavkar, Sanju Nidavani, Sangameah Harihaal, Annappa Maitri and Sadashiv Kore. Sister BK Uma was also present on the occasion.

Laxmi Nagar (Karnataka): Farmers were felicitated with a shawl for their valuable contribution to the Nation.

Kudachi (Karnataka): Felicitation program for farmers marked National Farmers Day by the Brahma Kumaris branch of Kudachi

Chikodi (Karnataka): Brahma Kumaris of Arbyanwadi village celebrated National Farmers Day. Guests of Honour were Yogic Farmer Laxman Devpuje from Ainapur, Athani; Organic farmer Vijaykumar Zalke from Chikodi, Village Council President Priya Basanaal from Arbyanwadi, Chikodi. Progressive farmers from Arbyanwadi Sadashiv Naik, Sambhaji Naik and Shankar Dodamani were also present. BK Shanta addressed the gathering and felicitated guests and farmers.

Ainapur, Belgaum (Karnataka): Detailed discussion on sustainable yogic farming was done with the farmers by the Brahma Kumaris sisters and dignitaries from the agricultural sector. The session was held both at the center premises and virtually. Also, the dignitaries were presented with godly gifts.

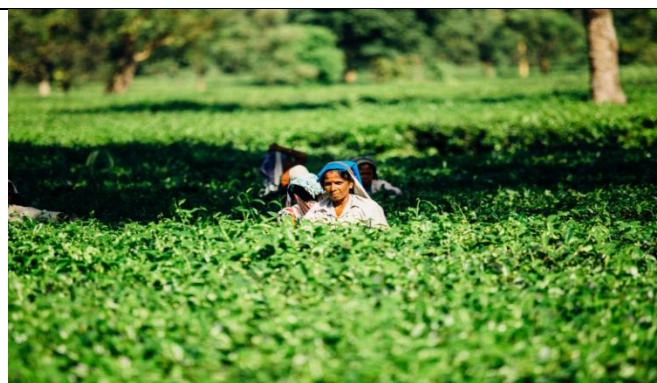

Sirsi (Karnataka): Brahma Kumaris honoured Ramesh Hegde and Karibasappa Gowda, award winners as progressive farmers of Agricultural University, Dharwad. Asst. Director of Horticulture Satish Hegde and Asst. Director of Agriculture Madhukar Naik were the guest of honour in the event. BK Veena shared the importance of using the science of sustainable yogic farming.

Muddebihal (Karnataka): With lighting the divine lamp, the inauguration of the Farmers Day program was done by the Brahma Kumaris sister and dignitaries. Farmers were felicitated and the significance and success stories of sustainable organic and yogic farming were also shared on the occasion

Raibag (Karnataka): The National Farmers Day was celebrated with great zeal by the Brahma Kumaris center of Raibag, Karnataka

M. K. Hubli (Karnataka): Progressive farmer was honoured with the godly gifts and floral garland by the Brahma Kumaris. Farmers Day celebrations also included an in-depth discussion on the sustainable yogic farming project of the Agriculture and Rural Development Wing of Brahma Kumaris

Bidar (Karnataka): At Pawan Dham, the occasion of National Farmers Day was celebrated. Agriculture Officer Aarati Patil, President of Kisan Sangh Sidramappa Anadure, Secretary of Kisan Sangh (Bidar district) Dayanand Swamy graced the occasion. BK Pratima, BK Prabhakar, BK Gurudevi, BK Mangala, BK Shilpa shared the godly message and wisdom of sustainable yogic farming. 300 farmers from around Bidar District took benefit of this program

Chikkodi, Belagavi(Karnataka): Guests of Honour were Vijaykumar Zalke, Organic farmer, Basanaalgadde; Savita Zalke, Organic farmer, Basanaalgadde; Suresh Kurunwadi, Yogik farmer, Bhoj; Sangeeta Kurunwadi, Yogik farmer, Bhoj, Chikodi. BK Shanta honoured all the guests

Chikkodi, Belagavi(Karnataka): Guest of Honor were Village Council President Mrs Rohini Chidanand Hargapure from Shiragaonwadi, Organic Farmers Ganapati Appayya Navane, Appasaheb Babu Hargapure, Rajendra Malagouda Patil and Gajanan Hargapure. BK Shanta shared her viewpoints on the important role of farmers and honoured the guest

Rabkavi Banhatti (Karnataka): Sister BK Mala organized the event for farmers at the centre. Rural Development Core Committee Member of Mount Abu Brother BK Shekhar graced the occasion as the chief guest. Sister BK Geeta deliberated her views on organic yogic farming. Sadashiv Bhangi, Agriculture Pandit Jagdal; Parasappa Hunnoor, Agriculture Pandit Kulahalli; Kadapa Hosur Jagdal, winner of the Agriculture Excellence State Award were present on the occasion. Brother BK Mahadev welcomed all guests.

Kadapatti (Karnataka): Brahma Kumaris Kadapatti celebrated Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav by organizing a program for farmers on National Farmers Day. BK Meera inspired the farmers to do sustainable yogic farming and also addressed everyone to practice meditation for peaceful and happy living

Chikkapadasalgi, Jamkhandi (Karnataka): The National Farmers Day was celebrated with great zeal under the guidance of Jamkhandi Brahma Kumaris Incharge BK Meera. Chief guests of the occasion were Shivdraday Babaladhimath, Ravi Tulsigiri, AEO (Agriculture Executive Officer), Savalgi Sector; Sandeep Patil, Taluka Krishi Pradhan Award Winner and Organic Farmer; Anand Kalolli, Organic Farmer; Ramesh Yakshamba, Organic Farmer, Savalgi and Organic Farmer Suresh Danagouda

Bidar (Karnataka): Participation of 250 farmers from about 25 villages was observed. More than 100 women farmers participated in the program. Also, hundreds of farmers virtually took part. BK Saraswati was the keynote speaker. N. Kengegoud, Agriculture Deputy Director, Bidar; Retired Senior Scientist Dr Ravi Deshmukh, Krishi Vigyan Kendra, Bidar; Progressive Farmer and District Revenue Agriculture Commendation Winner Jafar Mian, Winners of Farmer's Commendation on Progress Mahadev Nagure Chatnali and Arun Reddy were prominently present. Incharge of Brahma Kumaris Rampure Colony BK Sunanda inspired all with her views on organic yogic farming and honoured guests with godly gifts

Ranebennur (Karnataka): With presenting godly gifts and felicitation shawl, Brahma Kumaris honoured farmers on National Farmers Day

MAHARASHTRA

Shedgewadi (Maharashtra): Farmer's felicitation program was organized by the Brahma Kumaris. On this occasion, progressive farmers were presented with godly gifts.

Adawad, Jalgaon district (Maharashtra): Farmers felicitation event marked National Farmers Day. Brahma Kumaris local service center Incharge BK Sangeeta apprised about the activities being undertaken by the Brahma Kumaris Agriculture and Rural Development Wing. Dr Ishwar Patil, DG Patil and Bk Sakshi were present on this occasion.

Parola, Jalgaon (Maharashtra): National Farmers Day was celebrated by organising an awareness session at the Brahma Kumaris Parola center. District Council member Rohan Patil, Agriculture Board Officer BK Borse along with progressive Farmer Tarachand Jain, BK Raghunath Patil from Pune were present on this occasion. Parola service center Incharge BK Sandhya apprised all about the sustainable organic yogic farming project of the Brahma Kumaris Agriculture and Rural Development Wing.

Kadgaon (Nashirabad, Maharashtra): Farmers empowerment program marked National Farmers Day and Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav by the Brahma Kumaris Kadgaon. Information on sustainable organic and yogic farming was well shared by BK Dipa, BK Mangala and Village head Sister Bharti.

Hupari (Maharashtra): Brahma Kumaris yogic farming book was presented to more than 500 farmers. BK Sunita gave a welcome note. BK Sunanda shared the importance of yogic farming as a need of today's time. Shashikala Jolle, Minister of Endowments, Karnataka appreciated the program and projects of the Agriculture and Rural Development Wing of the Brahma Kumaris. BK Ashok shared his experience of yogic farming. Village Head Sudeep Singh Ugle and the Chairman of Karadaga Education Society Dr Abhinandan Murabate were also in the guest appearance. The special honour was given to 10 progressive farmers

Latur (Maharashtra): The Brahma Kumaris celebrated the National Farmer's under the guidance of BK Nanda at Rajyog Bhawan, the service centre of Brahma Kumaris in Latur. The program was arranged to honour farmers for their commendable work and to raise awareness about the benefits of Sustainable Organic and Yogic Farming.

Bhilawadi (Maharashtra): At Janaki Hall of Bhilwadi Brahma Kumaris center, 150 farmers participated in the National Farmers Day event. Progressive farmer Suhas Patil was honoured. Senior Rajyoga Teacher of Brahma Kumaris Bhilawadi center BK Meera shared her inspirations of the role of spirituality in farming. The chief guest was Sandeep Rajoba, District President of Swabhimani Shetkari Sanghatana (farmers union based in Kolhapur, Maharashtra, India)

Amdapur, Chikhli, Buldana (Maharashtra): As a part of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, the Farmers felicitation program was held where the farmers were honoured by BK Keshav and BK Surekha. Agriculture Assistant Archana Khedkar, Vaishali Gavai Sarpanch from Amdapur, BK Nirmala, BK Keshav from Mount Abu, Nanduseth Dusad, President of Vishwa Hindu Parishad Branch in Amdapur were present on the occasion

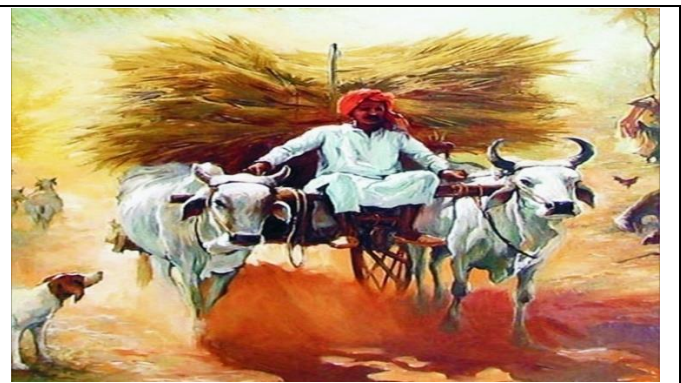

Tumsar (Maharashtra): The chief guest DB. Patil, B.D.O Tumsar; District Council Chairman Dhanendra Turkar, Farmer Rajendra Patel, Engineer Pravin Patel and BK Premrata were present as the chief guides. Everyone pledged and promised to do yogic farming. 200 Farmer brothers and sisters were present

Palghar (Maharashtra): BK Rajeshree shared the details of the Agriculture and Rural Development Wing project 'Sustainable Organic and Yogic Farming' and BK Jagriti reflected on the importance of Rajyoga meditation in daily life. Chief guests of the occasion were Agriculture Officer of Palghar District Tarkse Sahib and Scientist Mr Thane.

Satana (Maharashtra): Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav was marked with the National Farmers Day celebrations. Dr Malhar Deshpande, an eye surgeon from Malegaon addressed the gathering. Kashinath Kapadnis, the award winner of the Mahatma Gandhi Addiction Mukti Award shared his views on 'Addiction-free Farmer'. Deputy Secretary of Krishi Uttan Market Committee, Vijay Pawar was also present in the honor of the farmers. Brahma Kumaris agricultural book on sustainable yogic farming was presented to all farmers

Mehun, Muktainagar (Maharashtra): 75 years of India's Independence was marked by the Brahma Kumaris of Mehun by organising a seminar for farmers on the National Farmers Day. BK Varsha and BK Sushma apprised about the sustainable yogic farming project of the Agriculture and Rural Development Wing of Brahma Kumaris

Pimprinandu, Muktainagar (Maharashtra): On the occasion of National Farmers Day, BK Varsha and BK Sushma apprised the participants regarding the efficient results of the sustainable yogic farming projects of Brahma Kumaris Agriculture and Rural Development Wing.

Sawaner (Wakodi, Maharashtra): On National Farmers Day, a program to felicitate was organized. Among the dignitaries were Ramdas Savlikar, Rahul Khorgade, Mahendra Janbandhu, Devnath Baviskar, Prakash Mange, Shankar Ninave, Gajanan Tarave, Nitin Bharti. Village Head Manohar Junaghare, Suresh Burde, Bandu Patil Khorgade and center Incharge BK Surekha honoured the farmers

Mauda (Maharashtra): Farmers doing organic farming and are addiction free were honoured by the Brahma Kumaris Mauda on National Farmers Day. Regional Organic Farming Instructor Krishna Hatwar, Mauda Taluka Agriculture Officer Sandeep Kakde, Agriculture Officer Jumle and Agriculture Officer Sandhya Makad were prominently present in the program. Brahma Kumaris Incharge BK Archana inspired all to bring organic and yogic farming practices into their fields. Hundreds of farmers took advantage of the program and pledge to do organic yogic farming

Gad Mudshingi, Kolhapur (Maharashtra): Farmer's felicitation marked National Farmers Day celebrations. Deputy Village head Tanaji Patil, Agricultural Officer Mr Mulla, Social worker Ranjit Rashiwade and Village council worker Mr Gitesh were the guests who graced the event. 70 people availed themselves of this program

Vakare, Kolhapur (Maharashtra): 600 people participated in the National Farmers Day program by the Brahma Kumaris Vakare. The event was inspiring in the divine presence of BK Sunanda, National Coordinator of Agriculture and Rural Development Wing. Agriculture Deputy Director (Kolhapur) Ravindra Pathak, Sub Divisional Agriculture Officer Pangare, Mandal Agricultural Officer K D. Jitkar, Agriculture Officer R G Patil and many village heads and eminent personalities were present

Shiroli, Kolhapur (Maharashtra): Satish Patil, president of Mahatma Gandhi Tanta Mukti Gaon Mohim (Dispute-free Village Scheme); Progressive farmers Narayan More, Krushnat Patil, Banda Lambe and Ashok Patil graced the National Farmers Day event as the special guest. 150 people availed themselves of this program

Radhanagari, Kolhapur (Maharashtra): 125 people availed themselves of the National Farmers Day program which was graced by the special guest Block Development Officer (Radhanagari) Mr Bhandari, Agriculture Officers Mr Mohite and Mr Shrugare, and Village head Rajaram Patil. The National Coordinator of the Agriculture and Rural Development Wing BK Sunanda shared about sustainable organic and yogic farming.

Rashiwade, Radhanagari (Kolhapur, Maharashtra): Under the guidance of BK Sunanda, National Coordinator of Agriculture and Rural Development Wing, a program for farmers' awareness on organic yogic farming was organised that observed the participation of 950 people. Subzonal Agriculture Officer Jalinder Pangare, Village head, Krushnat Pawar, Deputy Village head Rangrao Chaugule, Swabhimani Shetkari Sanghatana (farmers union) President Jalindhar Patil, and district council member Vinay Patil were prominently present.

Kotoli, Kolhapur (Maharashtra): Social worker and Civil Engineer Sanjay Patil and Progressive Farmers Mr Mhaskar and Mr Jagtap were the main guests of the event organized by the Brahma Kumaris Kotoli on the National Farmers Day. The event observed the participation of 250 people. National coordinator of Agriculture and Rural Development Wing BK Sunanda informed that the need for an hour is sustainable organic and yogic farming

Lodhi Kheda, Saoner (Maharashtra): In the program organized by Brahma Kumaris Lodhi Kheda, farmers were briefed about sustainable yogic organic farming.

Hanmantwadi, Kolhapur (Maharashtra): On the National Farmers Day, BK Sunanda, National coordinator of Agriculture and Rural Development Wing addressed 550 people with her inspiring message on organic and yogic farming. Vasantrao Deshmukh, Director, Deshmukh Education Society; Mrs Rameshwari Kamble, Agricultural assistant; Dipak Bhapkar, President of Mahatma Gandhi Tanta Mukti Gaon Mohim (Dispute-free Village Scheme) and Village Head Sanjay Jadhav were the main dignitaries of the occasion

Hattisara, Saoner (Maharashtra): Farmers were adorned with a turban as a mark of honour. Brahma Kumaris Hattisara held this felicitation program on National Farmers Day

Amgaon (Maharashtra): On the occasion of National Farmers Day, the special guests present were Block Development Officer, Taluka Agriculture Officer and brother Ramesh from Mount Abu and the Executive Member of Agriculture and Rural Development Wing brother BK Mahendra. BK Smita advised farmers to improve the quality of crops with the practice of organic yogic farming.

Gondia (Maharashtra): D. D. M Mr Jangre of NABARD Bank, Taluka Agricultural Officer, District President of the Indian Farmers' Congress, the District President of the Indian Farmers Association, BK Ratnamala and executive member of Agriculture and Rural Development Wing BK Mahendra Thakur guided farmers to do sustainable yogic farming and use only organic products. Progressive farmers were honoured with certificates and godly gifts

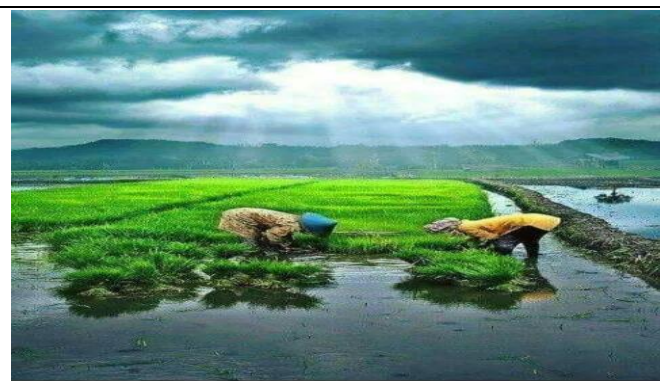

Rahuri (Maharashtra): National Farmers Day program was celebrated by organizing an awareness session on sustainable organic and yogic farming. The dignitaries present on the occasion were District President of Farmers Association Mr Ravindra More, Agriculture Officer Mr Kohokade, Village head Vishwanath Nikam, Deputy Village head Subhash Judre, Rural worker Mr Bhingarde, Chairman of society no. 2 (Takli) Ashok Kavane, BK Sister Nanda and BK Sister Khushi.

Jalgaon (Maharashtra): Felicitation program for farmers was held at the Brahma Kumaris center where farmers Anil Sankari, Bhagwat Kurkure, Samadhan Patil and BK Radheshyam were honoured with godly gifts of agricultural literature. Kurban Tadavi, Deputy Director, ATMA was the main chief guest of the occasion. BK Radheshyam shared his success stories of organic yogic farming practices. Jalgaon Sub zone Incharge BK Sister Meenakshi urged all to practice sustainable yogic farming and concluded with guided meditation for all.

Rahuri (Maharashtra): The farmers were honoured at the Brahma Kumaris center, Rahuri. Sunil Rajmane, Director of Mahatma Phule Krishi Vidyapeeth in Rahuri, Progressive Farmers and Organic Farming Guide Nehe were invited as the special guest on the occasion. Director of Brahma Kumaris Rahuri center BK Nanda apprised all about organic yogic farming.

Latur (Maharashtra): Farmers were honoured with shawl by the Brahma Kumaris at the centre premises on the occasion of National Farmers Day.

Risod (Maharashtra): On National Farmers Day, the farmers were honored with Brahma Kumaris agricultural books. Farmers practising organic farming shared their experiences. Also, the importance of organic yogic farming was highlighted Kamptee (Maharashtra): Under the guidance of Sister BK Premrata and successful coordination by Sister BK Vandana, the National Farmers Day program was organized. Dr Vachaspati Pandey, Senior Scientist of the Regional Organic Farming Training Center arrived as the chief guest in the program. Brahma Kumaris Agriculture and Rural Development Division member Dr Mahendra Thakur reflected on the proper use of agricultural residues to save nature from getting polluted. Chairman Sevak Uike, Mitaram Sawalakhe, Dilip Mulay, Chandrashekhar Donarkar, Ishwar Madankar, Shankar Deshmukh, Rajendra Shendre, Surendra Malwar, Brother Shankar, along with 11 organic farmers and agricultural scientists were honoured.

Bambavade (Maharashtra): Gokul Dairy Director Karan Singh Gaikwad, Executive Magistrate of tehsil Birajdar, Kolhapur District Member Mr Borge, Agriculture Officer Mr Shelke, Village head Sagar Kamble, Deputy Village head Sayaji Nikam and 150 farmers arrived for the National Farmers Day program at the Brahma Kumaris center

Tembhurni, Solapur (Maharashtra): The Brahma Kumaris of Tembhurni celebrated National Farmers Day by felicitating newly elected Sarpanchs of Madha Tehsil. They were adorned with a turban as a mark of honour. Chief Guest Dhanraj Shinde, BK Somaprabha, BK Sangeeta and other farmers were present.

Nanded (Maharashtra): Farmers honour program was organized at Brahma Kumaris local service center located at Vasant Nagar, Nanded. Agriculturist Dattatraya Kadam, Organic Farmer Bhushan Bhagwan Ingole, Balaji Sawant, Arjun Jadhav, Bhimrao Ingole, Keshav Kalyankar, Brother Rajendra, Brother Nandedkar, Mrs Kalyankar Tai and Kadam Tai graced the occasion. District Agriculture Superintendent RB Chalwade, Journalist Krishna Jomegaonkar and others spoke on the occasion. BK Sister Vandana well coordinated the event.

Pawaddauna, Mauda (Maharashtra): Addiction-free farmers were honoured on the National Farmers Day program organized by the Brahma Kumaris of Pawaddauna. Sarpanch Hatwar, Congress Committee President Wankhede, Asha program worker sister Geeta, Gram Panchayat Member sister Bhumika, organic farming Trainer Krishna Hatwar were present as the main guest

Akluj, Solapur (Maharashtra): Aiming to bring awareness on sustainable organic and yogic farming, the program was organised at the Brahma Kumaris yogic farm which was availed by the local villagers and many farmers

Deglur (Maharashtra): Brahma Kumaris Deglur enthusiastically celebrated National Farmers Day and the 75 years of India's Independence. More than 500 farmers of local and Deglur tehsils participated in this program and were honoured with a plant. Special honour was given to all the farmers doing organic farming. Farmer's Indian State President and MLA Shankar Anna Dhondge, Shivajirao Deshmukh, Agricultural Officer Someshwar Giri, Municipal Worker Shailesh Ullewarji were the eminent personalities who graced the occasion. Deglur Brahma Kumaris Incharge BK Maneka apprised all to practice organic yogic farming

Niharwani, Mauda (Maharashtra): BK Archana motivated farmers to do yogic farming in addition to organic farming. Village head Kanchan Dandare shared his experiences of farming with organic manure. Farmers doing organic farming and are free from addiction were honoured on this occasion. Village council member Mangala Deshmukh was present as the special guest

Shirasgaon Dh, Sirasgaon (Wardha, Maharashtra): Farmers Day program was held by the Brahma Kumaris of Wardha where the main speaker was BK Mahendra Thakur. Village Council Members Jyoti Paul and Ravindra Tinghase, Social Worker Ashok Nistane, Satish Ghode, Archana Ghode graced the occasion. BK Madhuri and BK Leena were also present

Umred (Maharashtra): Farmers felicitation was done on the occasion of National Farmers Day. Guests of the occasion were Panjabrao Ambhore, Chairman, Krushi Utpanna Bazar Samiti (Agricultural association in Umred, Maharashtra); Dr Narayan Lambat, Krishi Bhushan awardee farmer, Chikhalapar; Krishnakant Mishra, C.D.Kolhe, Taluka Agriculture Officer, Umred; BK Vijaybhai Maske, Village Development Officer, Tarana, Maharashtra; Nikhil Urkude and Sonutai Kakade, Board of Farmer Director, Umred. Brahma Kumaris Umred Service center Incharge BK Rekha shared the different projects being undertaken by the Agriculture and Rural Development Wing of the Brahma Kumaris.

Akola (Maharashtra): National Farmers Day was celebrated by organising a seminar on sustainable organic and yogic farming. On this occasion, farmers were honoured with godly gifts and a felicitation shawl.

Malkapur, Akola (Maharashtra): Farmers felicitation marked National Farmers Day at the Brahma Kumaris center of Malkapur. BK Sisters apprised the farmers and dignitaries about the projects being undertaken by the Brahma Kumaris Agriculture and Rural Development Wing

Wardha (Maharashtra): Organic farmers were honoured on National Farmers Day. Keynote speaker BK Mahendra Thakur informed the audience about the activities being run by the Agriculture and Rural Development Wing of the Brahma Kumaris. Wardha service center Incharge BK Madhuri explained the importance of yogic farming. Gautam Wakde, Research Officer of Caste Verification Committee, Deputy Commissioner of Social Welfare S. M. Chavan, Zilla Parishad President Sarita Gakhre, Group Development Officer Anil Gawande, Director of Agriculture Sanjay Hadke were the main guest of the program.

Patur, Akola (Maharashtra): Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav was celebrated by sharing the message of the need of organic yogic farming in today's time.

Dongaon (Maharashtra): Sustainable organic and yogic farming benefits were shared by BK Snehalta. Farmers and local villagers participated in this event

Nagpur (Maharashtra): Organic and addiction-free farmers were honoured on National Farmers Day by BK Manju, Director Nagpur service center. The program was coordinated by BK Yogeshwar. Village heads and Tehsil President graced the occasion

Deshmukh, Palus (Maharashtra): Farmer brothers and sisters were honoured in the program on National Farmers Day. Shirgaon Village head Vishwas Gawli, Professor Amol Deshmukh, brother Nikam along with farmers doing organic yogic farming for the past 30 years graced the occasion

Kamptee (Kanhan, Maharashtra): Brahma Kumaris Kamptee held farmers felicitation ceremony. On this occasion, the member of Agriculture and Rural Development Division B.K. Premlata shared with the farmers the benefits of yogic farming.

Kamathi (Tarsa, Maharashtra): Senior sister BK Prerna and member of Agriculture and Rural Development Wing BK Premalata apprised all to practice organic yogic farming. District Council member Shalinitai Deshmukh expressed her gratitude to the Brahma Kumaris organization for bringing social change and their inspiring work in the field of agriculture. In his address, Village head Anand Lende also reflected on the importance of organic farming. The program was attended by a large number of farmers along with village council officers and dignitaries

Malkapur (Maharashtra): The farmers were honoured by the Brahma Kumaris on the occasion of National Farmers Day. The chief guest of the program, Taluka Agriculture President Jawahar Deshmukh praised the theme of Sustainable Yogic Farming and expressed his gratitude towards farmers. Malkapur service center Incharge BK Geeta informed about the activities conducted by the Brahma Kumaris Agriculture and Rural Development Wing. President of Farmers Association Damodarji Sharma and Village Council members Monali Bawne Dhole, Amol Bagade and Nilesh Vanare were present on the occasion

Kamptee (Nagardhan, Maharashtra): Kamptee Brahma Kumaris Incharge BK Madhuri gave the introductory note and inspired all with her words on sustainable yogic farming. Member of Agriculture and Rural Development Wing BK Premalata was the keynote speaker of the occasion

Tumsar (Maharashtra): BK Shakti, the local service center Incharge expressed her gratitude towards farmers. As the main guide in the program, Director Kamathi region BK Premlata addressed the farmers about sustainable yogic farming. BDO of Panchayat Samiti, Tumsar, DB Patil also shared his views. District Council Chairman Dhanendra Turkar described yogic farming as beneficial for the farmers

Sangamner (Maharashtra): The training program for farmers was organized by the Brahma Kumaris branch of Sangamner. Farmers were apprised about the methods and techniques to practice sustainable yogic farming and were motivated to use only organic products in their fields

Pune (Maharashtra): On behalf of the Brahma Kumaris, BK Balaso Ruge proposed the authorities of Pune Yerwada Jail about the practice of sustainable yogic farming by the prisoners for their spiritual growth. A positive discussion was also done regarding the construction of a plot for the same.

Karjat (Maharashtra): Brahma Kumaris Yog Bhawan of Ghatkopar subzone held the felicitation program for farmers at Vihaan Farm, Karjat, in which Agriculture Officer Dr Mhaskar and Village head Gangawane honoured Satkarmurti Ashok Patil and 20 farmers. Also, the awareness of sustainable organic and yogic farming was raised among all.

Chikhali, Mauda (Maharashtra): The benefits of sustainable yogic farming was shared by BK Archana. Organic farmers and addiction-free farmers were honoured on this occasion. Many from Chikhali village availed of this event

Mauda (Maharashtra): BK Archana motivated farmers to do chemical-free farming and apprised them to instead use organic products in their fields and the value of thought power for healthy crop yield. In the program, Village head Ingole, organic farmers and 6 drug-free farmers were felicitated

Kasegaon (Maharashtra): Farmers felicitation program marked National Farmers Day. The dignitaries of the occasion were Hon'ble Nanasaheb Patil, Former Chief Agriculture Secretary of Maharashtra; Kasegaon Village head Kiran Patil; Hon'ble Niwas Patil, Member of Government Farmers Advisory Committee; Agricultural Assistant Mahendra Rokade; Medical Officer Dr Vivekananda Fasale; Progressive Farmers Sandeep Patil and Uday Singh Patil. Incharge of the Kasegaon Brahma Kumaris service center BK Padma addressed the gathering and motivated farmers to practice sustainable yogic farming

Bhamewada, Mauda (Maharashtra): Brahma Kumaris Mauda service center Incharge BK Archana encouraged farmers to practice the traditional ways of farming to get healthy and high crop yield. This awareness session was held on National Farmers Day.

Nimkheda, Mauda (Nagpur, Maharashtra): The program organized on National Farmers Day was aimed to reflect on the traditional ways of farming. The benefits of ancient sustainable yogic farming were shared with all by BK Archana

Malegaon (Maharashtra): In the felicitation program organized to celebrate National Farmers Day, certificates were presented to organic farmers by BK Sarita.

Chalisgaon (Maharashtra): Local Brahma Kumaris service center Incharge BK Vandana shared the various projects of Brahma Kumaris Agriculture and Rural Development Wing. A sustainable yogic farming project was emphasised during this event. Prakash Patil, Shravan Mahajan, Deepak Rajput, Yogesh Amritkar, Valmiki Suryavanshi Yaveli were prominently present.

Osmanabad (Maharashtra): As a tribute to 75 years of India's Independence, the Farmer's honour ceremony and pledge taking to follow organic and yogic practices in farming was observed by Anand Nagar Brahma Kumaris center, Osmanabad. The dignitaries present on the occasion were Sanjay Khadke, Sarpanch, Wagholi; Shriram Kakade, Mukund Patil and Sunil Magar. Felicitation was done by BK Som Prabha and BK Krishna. BK Suresh gave the introductory note and BK Jyoti thanked all. About 200 people benefited from the event.

Bodwad (Maharashtra): Bk Ashwini explained the purpose of the National Farmers Day program and shared the various projects of Brahma Kumaris Agriculture and Rural Development Wing. The felicitation of farmers was done by BK Ashwani, Dr Sanjay Varade, Arvind Baviskar and Pramila Barade.

MADHYA PRADESH

Sendhwa (Madhya Pradesh): BK Aarti from Indore center apprised the farmers about yogic organic farming. Senior Agriculture Officer Anita Berdey was the chief guest of the occasion. BK Sadhna and Rural Development Officer Subhart Kumawat also addressed their valuable viewpoints. Brother Praveen from Badwani, Advocate and Rajyogi Sanjay Maurya also graced the occasion

Madhoganj, Gwalior (Madhya Pradesh): The Program for Farmers was organized in which farmers of nearby villages of Gwalior district participated. Dr GS Rawat, Former Head of Department, Rajmata Vijayaraje Scindia Agricultural University, Gwalior; Laxman Singh, Former District Panchayat Vice President, Gwalior and Brahma Kumaris Lashkar Incharge BK Adarsh and brother BK Prahlad and BK Jitu were present. Farmers were honoured with a shawl and mementoes. BK Jitu well coordinated the even

Gudari Ghat, Bhopal (Madhya Pradesh): Principal Scientist Dr Anand Vishwakarma, Soil Chemistry and Fertility department was the chief guest of the program. Brahma Kumaris center In-charge BK Dr Reena apprised about the organic yogic farming to hundreds of farmer brothers and sisters present. Farmers took a pledge to do sustainable organic yogic farming while making their lives happy with the daily practice of Raja Yoga meditation

Dhamnod (Madhya Pradesh): Brahma Kumaris organized a symposium in which local scholars from the field of agriculture participated. Rural Agriculture Extension Officer Mr Mukesh Gupta, an organic farmer for the last 23 years Mr Ramakrishna Patidar, shared their experiences in farming. Sustainable yogic farming practitioners BK Ambaram Patidar and BK Rajesh Verma were honoured. Brahma Kumari Dhamnod Incharge BK Preeti shared the Brahma Kumaris projects of the Agriculture and Rural Development Wing.

Shajapur (Madhya Pradesh): National Farmers Day was celebrated at Rajmata Vijayaraje Scindia Agricultural University, Shajapur. Director of Agricultural University and Senior Agricultural Scientist Dr G.R. Ambawatiya, Agriculture Scientist Mukesh Singh and Agriculture and Home Scientist Gayatri Verma were the guests of the occasion. Dr Ambawatiya urged the farmers to do organic farming. BK Poonam & BK Chanda shared the importance of meditation and the method of sowing seeds in God's remembrance.

Seoni (Madhya Pradesh): Deputy Director in Agriculture Department Morris Nath from Seoni was present as the Chief Guest on the occasion. The program was also graced by the dignitaries Agricultural Scientist Nikhil Singh and the director of P.C.M. organic farm Ankit Malu. District Incharge of Brahma Kumaris Sansthan BK Jyoti also shared her blessings with the farmer brothers. Senior Rajayogi BK Rameshwari held a guided meditation session for all. Farmers were honoured with godly gifts

Kothi, Omkareshwar (Madhya Pradesh): The 6th Ascension anniversary of Former Incharge of Indore Zone of Brahma Kumaris BK Om Prakash and the program for farmers was marked on the National Farmers Day in which about 10 farmers of Omkareshwar (Mandhata) were given a grand welcome with floral garlands. Raja Pushpendra Singh of Mandhata, Senior Farmer Rajaram from Ingla village, Brother Ramsingh from village Thapana and other farmers reached on the occasion. Omkareshwar (Kothi) Sub-center Incharge BK Shyama bestowed her blessings upon all and floral tributes were paid to BK Om Prakash

Dobhi, Narsinghpur (Madhya Pradesh): National Farmers Day celebration was marked with felicitating farmers and inspiring them to do sustainable organic and yogic farming

New Harsud (Madhya Pradesh): To commemorate the services of Former Incharge of Indore Zone of Brahma Kumaris BK Om Prakash and honour farmers on National Farmers Day, a program was organized which was inaugurated by Farmer brother Shridhar Mukati, Mansingh Chouhan, Hariprasad Chhapre, BK Santosh by lighting the divine lamp.

Ratlam (Madhya Pradesh): Deputy Director Agriculture Officer Vijay Chaurasia, District President of Indian Farmers Association Lalit G Paliwal, and BJP Kisan Morcha National member Dayaram Dhakad emphasised on the traditional methods of farming. Ratlam service center Incharge BK Savita discussed the significance of organic yogic farming. District President of Bharatiya Janata Yuva Morcha Viplav Jain was welcomed and honoured. 20 farmers were honoured with divine gifts.

Narsinghpur (Madhya Pradesh): On the occasion of National Farmers Day, a grand program was organized at Brahma Kumaris Divya Sanskar Bhawan in Narsinghpur which was graced by the eminent farmers of the district, Senior Officers of the Agriculture Department and Agricultural scientists. Center Incharge BK Kusum deliberated about sustainable organic and yogic farming. Godly gifts were presented to farmers

Khandwa (Madhya Pradesh): A program for Farmers felicitation and Former Incharge of Indore Zone of Brahma Kumaris BK Om Prakash commemoration was held at Bhagyoday Bhawan of Brahma kumari. 40 farmers of Khandwa were welcomed with floral garlands. C.V. Raman University Vice-Chancellor Dr Arun Joshi and Vice-Chancellor Ravi Chaturvedi, District Minister of Farmers Union Shailendra Jalodiya were present as the special guests. Center Incharge BK Shakti shared about sustainable organic yogic farming

Sarangpur, Rajgarh (Madhya Pradesh): Dharmendra Verma, District Head of Labor Union; Santosh Upadhyay, Agriculture Extension Officer; Dharam Singh, Block Technical Manager; Ghanshyam Vishwakarma, Agriculture Development Officer; Village Head Mod Singh were the dignitaries present on the occasion of National Farmers Day program. Incharge of local Brahma Kumaris BK Bhagya Lakshmi apprised farmers about organic yogic farming. A live Tableau of Mother Earth along with a rally was taken around to give the message of sustainable organic yogic farming. Addiction-free farmers were felicitated by BK Bhagya Lakshmi

Chaka, Katni (Madhya Pradesh): At Madhya Pradesh Brahma Kumaris center Om Shanti Bhawan, a seminar for farmers marked National Farmers Day

Biaora, Rajgarh (Madhya Pradesh): At Brahma Kumaris Rajgarh center Shivvardan Bhawan, the National Farmers Day was observed in the presence of dignitaries - Deputy Director Agriculture Harish Kumar Malviya, Dr Kayam Singh, Senior Agricultural Scientist at Krishi Vigyan Kendra; Agriculture Development Officer Rathor, Horticulture Scientist Lal Singh, Soil Scientist Kumrawat Singh and Agriculture Extension Officer Satyendra Kumar Soni. Brahma Kumaris Incharge BK Madhu bestowed her blessings. 44 farmers were honoured on this occasion

Bina (Madhya Pradesh): Farmers doing organic farming were honoured on National Farmers Day. District Judge Vinod Kumar Sharma from Ganjbasoda was the chief guest. Pandit Jagdish Tripathi, Principal of Higher Secondary School and founder of Priya Kunj Ashram, who received the President's Award addressed all on the occasion. Uma Shankar Prajapati, a prosperous organic farmer from Jonakhedi village was also present. Bina Brahma Kumaris Incharge BK Saroj motivated everyone to practice meditation and only use organic yogic methods in farming

Tendukheda, Narsinghpur (Madhya Pradesh): Farmer's felicitation program was organized. BK Preeti, BK Geeta, Farmer Ashok Rai, and Ramesh Dubey were present on the occasion. Farmers were apprised to bring organic yogic farming into practice

Karhi (Madhya Pradesh): Farmers felicitation program was organized by the Brahma Kumaris of Karhi. BK Anita, BK Sarika, Brother Uddhav, Brother Himmat, Brother Kanhaiyalal, Brother Mahesh Bhai were present on the occasion

Maheshwar (Madhya Pradesh): At Vishva Darshan Bhawan, the Brahma Kumaris service center of Maheshwar, Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav was celebrated as farmers felicitation program. BK Anita gave the message of being a self-reliant farmer. The farmers took a pledge to do organic yogic farming

Goteagaon, Jabalpur (Madhya Pradesh): District BJP Vice President Nidhan Singh Ji Patel, Former Village council President Mahendra G Nagesh, Rural Mandal President Abhishek Patel and Civil Surgeon Dr SK Pandey were the guest of honour at the Brahma Kumaris Goteagaon Farmer's Day program. BK Bhawna, BK Varsha, BK Sandeep and BK Ajay were present to coordinate the whole program and sharing the information on organic yogic farming

Bhitoni, Shahpura, Jabalpur (Madhya Pradesh): Chief Guests of Farmers Day event were Vice President of District Kisan Morcha BJP, Vishwajit Singh and Senior Agricultural Extension Officer from Shahpura, RP Dubey. Bhupendra Singh, Mandal President of Kisan Morcha BJP from Shahpura was the special guest of the occasion. BK Bhavana, BK Varsha and Civil Surgeon Dr SK Pandey shared their inspirations with all.

Panagar, Jabalpur (Madhya Pradesh): Congress Seva Dal District President Sanjay Srivastava and Dr SK Pandey put forward their valuable views on the occasion. BK Sandeep Vyohar, BK Bhavna and BK Varsha called upon the farmers to bring organic yogic farming into practice.

Barela, Jabalpur (Madhya Pradesh): The Brahma Kumaris of Barela celebrated Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav as a Farmer's awareness event which was graced by District Council President Brother Sanjay Patel and a Social Worker Mr Kailash Kesarwani. BK Sandeep, Civil Surgeon of Victoria Hospital BK Dr SK Pandey, BK Bhavana and BK Varsha inspired with their address on the sustainable yogic farming project of the Brahma Kumaris Agriculture and Rural Development Wing

Chaurai, Chhindwara (Madhya Pradesh): Chief guests of the Farmers Day event were Ishwar Singh Chaudhary, Village head of Hathni, Sanjay Vaidya. The event was presided over by BK Mangala. The farmers were aspired to adopt organic yogic farming for healthy life and high crop yield.

Chhindwara (Madhya Pradesh): Aiming to motivate farmers to use spirituality in farming, the event was organized by the Brahma Kumaris on National Farmers Day. BK Ganesh Chhindwara, Dr Vijay Paradkar of DN College, Crop Specialist Professor Dr J. Mahajan, Phytopathologist Dr Shikha Sharma, Principal Prakash Sanodia and Organic Farmer Pritesh Raghuvanshi were present on this occasion

Junnardeo, Chhindwara (Madhya Pradesh): Under the guidance of BK Rajni, a program on National Farmers Day was organized. Municipal President Pushpa Ramesh Sahu and Agricultural Forestry Officer Rakesh Arse were the dignitaries of the occasion

Parasia, Chhindwara (Madhya Pradesh): Bijori Village head Sunil Dhurve, Khamra Jethu Village head Sujit Viraha, Patwari Nandvanshi were the dignitaries of the National Day program conducted by the Brahma Kumaris to bring awareness on the need for natural organic farming. BK Vimala addressed farmers and shared valuable information on the Brahma Kumaris project of sustainable yogic farming.

Napier Town, Jabalpur (Madhya Pradesh): At Shiv Smriti Bhawan in Bhawartal Napier Town, Jabalpur, National Farmers Day was celebrated by the Brahma Kumaris. Senior Scientist at Jawaharlal Krishi University (Agronomist) Dr S.B. Agarwal, famous Surgeon Dr SK Pandey and Journalist Pawan Pandey were among the dignitaries who graced the occasion. Brahma Kumaris service center Incharge BK Bhawna, BK Varsha and BK Sandeep addressed the gathering and motivated all to do sustainable natural yogic farming.

Bargi, Jabalpur (Madhya Pradesh): Brahma Kumaris Bargi center honoured farmers with a shawl. BK Bhavana, Santosh Choukse of Gas Agency, Farmer and a Village head Jagdish, BK Varsha, BK Sandeep, Civil Surgeon Dr SK Pandey were present on the occasion

Amarwara, Chhindwara (Madhya Pradesh): National Farmers Day program was organized at Amarwada Center which observed farmers felicitation. Municipality President Santosh Patel, Organic Farmer Guide Sunderlal Nagvanshi, Director of NGO Rohit Verma, Agriculture Specialist Jai Rai graced the event as the main guest. Brahma Kumaris Amarwara Incharge BK Bharti addressed all about organic yogic farming

Shajapur (Madhya Pradesh): The Center of Agricultural Science executed the demonstration of advanced drone technology for spraying crops that was done by the head of center and scientist Dr G.R. Ambavatiya, under the technical guidance of SS Dhakad in collaboration with the Agricultural Science Farm Garuda Aeronautics, Chennai. The program was organized in the field of the Center of Agricultural Science in which Brahma Kumaris Center In-charge BK Poonam, BK Chanda and BK Deepak were invited as the chief guest. District Public Relations Officer (PRO) Anil Chandelkar and 70 guests and farmers were present

Bina (Madhya Pradesh): Farmers felicitation ceremony was organized by the Bina Brahma Kumaris service center. Senior Agricultural Horticulture Officer Praveen Sahu reflected on traditional farming as the only way to save Nature. Bina Brahma Kumaris Incharge BK Saroj briefed about the sustainable yogic farming of the Agriculture and Rural Development Wing

Rajgarh (Madhya Pradesh): National Farmers Day program was inaugurated with lighting the divine lamp by the Former Village head Patel Baluram, Deputy Village head Jugal Lovevansh, Brahmakumaris Rajgarh district Incharge BK Madhu, Sarangpur service center Incharge Vijayalakshmi, Jirapur Brahma Kumaris Incharge BK Namrata. Organic Yogic Farming techniques inspired all farmers. Brahmakumari Vijayalakshmi addressed the gathering. Brahma Kumaris sisters and dignitaries were adorned with a turban and a felicitation shawl as a mark of honour

Jaora (Madhya Pradesh): Sub-Divisional Officer of Agriculture Department N. K.Chhari was the chief guest of the Farmer's Day program. Veterinary Medical Officer Dr P.S. Kushwaha and Superintendent of Banakheda Agricultural-Farm Rajendra Singh Solanki were the special guests. Brahma Kumaris Incharge B.K. Savitri highlighted the roles and responsibilities of farmers towards the mother earth

Pali village, Bijawar (Madhya Pradesh): In the event organized on National Farmers Day, farmers and local villages pledged to do organic farming and avoid getting into any kind of drug addiction. Also, farmers were honoured with godly gifts.

Barach, Panna (Madhya Pradesh): Panna sub-service center Incharge BK Sita briefed about sustainable yogic farming. Mr AP Suman, Deputy Director, State Agricultural Service, District Panna also addressed the gathering. Village head Pritam Singh was also present. About 500 villagers availed of this event. Pledges were made and resolution letters were filled by the villagers to remain addiction free

Kadari, Chhatarpur (Madhya Pradesh): The program of National Farmers Day was inaugurated with lighting the divine lamp by dignitaries and BK Madhuri. Progressive farmers doing organic farming and are free from drug addiction were honoured by Head Teacher R. B. Gupta and former Sarpanch Dhruvaram Dwivedi.

Bagauta, Chhatarpur (Madhya Pradesh): Farmers were honoured in the presence of BK Kalpana, BK Mohani, Surendra Singh Parihar, Om Prakash Agarwal. Pledges were made to quit drugs.

Atkoha, Lavkush Nagar (Madhya Pradesh): On the National Farmers Day, Brahma Kumaris Atkoha held National Farmers Day. BK Sulekha honoured the dignitaries Akanksha Sharma and newly elected District General Secretary of Mahila Morcha BJP, Sita Tiwari and S.I. Akaksha Sharma

Urdmau, Chhatarpur (Madhya Pradesh): Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav was marked with National Farmers Day celebrations by the Brahma Kumaris branch of Urdmau. BK Rajni, BK Kalpana and BK Mohini were present on the occasion. BK Kalpana addressed the gathering.

Lalganwa, Khajuraho (Madhya Pradesh): Khajuraho Brahma Kumaris organized the Farmers Day Program. BK Neerja and BK Pinky shared their views on happy living and a yogic lifestyle for healthy farming. Village Head Devidin Parihar and eminent farmers Ram Singh, Ganesh Singh and other farmer brothers and sisters were present on the occasion.

Rawatpura, Harpalpur (Madhya Pradesh): With the vision to bring awareness about organic yogic farming, a program for farmers were organized. It was addressed by BK Asha and graced by the dignitaries Jitendra Singh Parmar and other farmers

Bijalpur (Indore, Madhya Pradesh): Honor Ceremony was organized by the Bijalpur Sub-Service Center of Premnagar, Indore. The special guests were Badrilal Choudhary, G.I.P.C. Manager; Ramprakash Ojha, G.B.O.I. Branch Manager Bijalpur; Radheshyam Bagwala, a social worker; Bharat Patwari, a social worker; Babulal Patel, President of Khati Samaj, Bijalpur. BK Shashi, BK Sharda, BK Yashwani, BK Manisha, honoured the dignitaries and farmers and called for adopting the organic-yogic farming method.

Khandwa (Madhya Pradesh): The dignitaries were honoured with a felicitation shawl and were given the opportunity to share their valuable experiences and lessons in the field of farming.

Morena (Madhya Pradesh): Farmers felicitation program was organized wherein 125 farmers participated. Rajyapal Singh Tomar, Krishi Vigyan Kendra, addressed all the farmers about the damage caused by pesticides and chemical fertilizers and encouraged them to do yogic farming. Retired CMHO Dr RC Bandel apprised about the diseases caused by insecticides. Center Incharge BK Rekha Behen gave detailed information about sustainable yogic farming. District Food Officer Bhim Singh Tomar expressed gratitude to all the participants.

Kshipra (Madhya Pradesh): Inaugurating the program by lighting the divine lamp, BK Anita, Kshipra center In-charge BK Poonam, social worker Vishnu Patel and farmers were present on the occasion of National Farmers Day at the service center of Brahma Kumaris Kshipra. The valuable views on sustainable yogic farming were shared with all.

Mandla (Madhya Pradesh): The National Farmers Day program was organized at Vishwa Shanti Bhawan. BK Mamta along with BK Omlata, Senior Scientist and Head of Krishi Vigyan Kendra Dr Vishal Meshram, Senior Scientist and Veterinary Doctor of Krishi Vigyan Kendra Dr Pranay Bharti and farmer brothers and sisters were present to take avail the knowledge of sustainable farming methods. Everyone was presented with Brahma Kumaris Gyanamrit magazine as a token of honour.

Ratlam (Madhya Pradesh): Brahma Kumaris Ratlam at Divya Darshan Bhawan, celebrated National Farmers Day as Farmer's felicitation day in which the Chief Guest Agriculture Officer Vijay G Chaurasia, BJP Kisan Morcha National Member Brother Dayaram Dhakad, District President of Indian Farmers Association Lalit G Paliwal along with BK Savita and BK Geeta were present on the occasion

Gandhwani (Madhya Pradesh): Senior Sister BK Uma welcomed all the farmer dignitaries. Guest Walia Chauhan reflected on the significance of celebrating Farmer's Day. Dwarka Gupta shared his experience of getting a high yield by doing organic farming

Burhanpur (Madhya Pradesh): In the program held at Prabhu Chintan Bhawan of Brahma Kumaris, Social Worker Madho Bihari Agrawal and Sister Tarika, progressive farmer Prahlad Kadu Bonde and about 100 prominent farmers who did farming with organic compounds and advanced methods were honoured with flowers and shawls. The Brahma Kumaris Regional Director BK Mangala guided and coordinated the whole program

Vidisha (Madhya Pradesh): Farmer's Day program was organized in the Agricultural Produce Market in which the Agricultural Officer Mahendra Thakur along with the staff members and many farmers were present.

Ashta, Sehore (Madhya Pradesh): Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav was marked with bringing awareness among farmers on the importance of organic yogic farming. On this occasion, Rajyoga Teacher BK Neelima apprised farmers on the sustainable yogic farming project of Brahma Kumaris Agriculture and Rural Development Wing.

Pandhane, Khandwa (Madhya Pradesh): BK Surekha honoured farmers and the officers of the Indian Farmers Association. Chunilal Nebhanani of Pandhane, Parmanand Kushwaha, Chandrashekhar Mahajan, Ramchandra Chacharia, a provincial member of the Indian Farmers Association, Divisional Minister Narendra Patel, District President Radheshyam Chacharia, District Minister Shailendra Jalodiya and farmers from all over the district including Yuvavahini district convener Bhupendra Kushwaha graced the occasion

Lakhnadon, Seoni (Madhya Pradesh): Retired Agriculture Assistant Statistical Officer, Mr Chaukse gave detailed information about different types of farming, describing organic farming as the best. Senior Farmer and retired Teacher Bhagwat Singh Thakur shared experiences of his visit to Brahma Kumaris HQ, Mount Abu. BK Samta briefed about sustainable yogic and organic farming. Farmers were adorned with a turban as a mark of honour

Rasuliya, Hoshangabad (Madhya Pradesh): Farmers felicitation program marked National Farmers Day. Godly gifts were presented to District Panchayat President Khushal Patel in the presence of Brahma Kumaris local service center Incharge BK Sunita.

Gopalpura, Petlawad, Jhabua (Madhya Pradesh): A week-long program on 'Farmers You are Great, You are Nation's Pride' were organized for farmers agricultural awareness. From these, one program was held at Shiv Smriti Bhawan, Gopalpura where farmers were honoured and pledged to take organic yogic farming. Petlawad Incharge BK Jyoti informed the farmers about the success of yogic farming experimentations. Jhabua Brahma Kumaris Incharge BK Jayanti bestowed her blessings upon all Sheopur (Madhya Pradesh): District Panchayat President Kavita Meena, former MLA Satyawar Chauhan, leader of Farmer's Union Paliwal, Senior Farmer Devi Ram Jat graced the occasion as the main guest. Center Incharge BK Tara honoured all farmers with a shawl.

ODISHA

Dharakote (Odisha): The dignitaries who graced the occasion of National Farmers Day were Dharakote BDO Dennis Behera, Agricultural retired Overseer Surendranath Nayak. Dharakote Brahma Kumaris Incharge BK Bhagya addressed the gathering

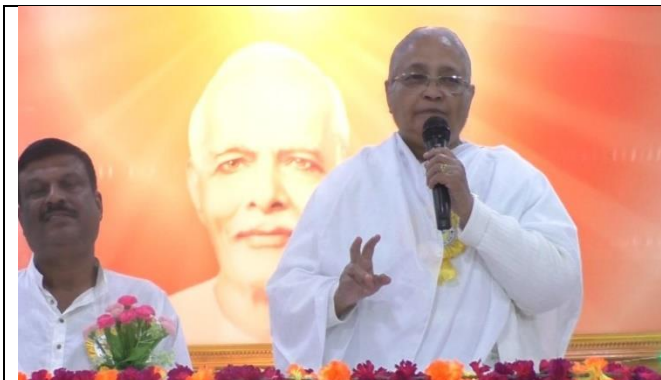

Kendupadar (Odisha): An awareness session for farmers was organized on National Farmers Day. It was graced by Kalu Charan, Surya Narayan Charchy, Gokul Charan Mahapatra and Abhimanyu Mahanty.

Gurandi (Odisha): To promote natural organic and sustainable yogic farming, a program for farmers was organized on National Farmers Day. BK Pratigya addressed the gathering.

Gahangu (Odisha): Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav was celebrated by the Brahma Kumaris Gahangu with organizing a program for farmers on National Farmers Day. On this occasion, BK Mamta apprised farmers to practice sustainable yogic farming in addition to using organic products in farms.

Brahmapur (Odisha): At Prabhu Upahar Retreat centre, Brahmapur, an awareness session on farming was held where the chief guest Chief Manager of Tata group Ashok Ray discussed the natural ways of farming. Incharge of Brahmapur Subzone BK Manju advised all to inculcate divine values in life for healthy and high yield in farming. Director of Prabhu Upahar Retreat Centre BK Mala honoured the farmers. 150 people were present in the program.

B.Nuagam (Odisha): Aiming to raise awareness on sustainable organic and yogic farming, Brahma Kumaris B.Nuagam took the initiative of organizing a program for farmers on National Farmers Day. BK Lily was present on this occasion.

Balisira (Odisha): BK Jyoti shared the uses of practising sustainable yogic farming. She also inspired farmers to only do organic farming and avoid the usage of chemical products in farms.

Dhenkanal (Odisha): Inspirations of sustainable yogic farming were shared as a part of National Farmers Day celebrations. Deputy Director of Agriculture Anshuman Pattnayak and Deputy Director Horticulture Gitashree Padhi were the main guests of the program

Cuttack (Odisha): Amanapada Youth Club & Brahmakumaris Cuttack held the National Farmers Day program in Amanapada Village. Co-Incharge Cuttack Subzone & Zonal Co-Ordinator Rural Development Wing (RERF) BK Sulochna vividly described the benefits of meditation in yogic farming. Dr Arabinda Dhali and MLA Jaydev were the chief guests. Village head Rashmita Sahoo from Jagannathpur also joined as the guest of honour. On the occasion, BK Sulochna felicitated 70 farmers.

Sundargarh (Odisha): The National Farmers Day program was held in the presence of the Vice President of Bharatiya Farmers Association Gyanendra Naik, Cheif District Agriculture Officer (Sundargarh) Ramchandra Naik, and District Agriculture Officer Dijabar, along with Sundargarh Brahma Kumaris center Incharge Rajyogini Jyostna.

Asika (Odisha): BK Pravati along with the dignitaries Bhagwan Reddy and R Simadri Reddy were present on the occasion of the National Farmers Day program as arranged by the Brahma Kumaris branch of Asika.

Bhanjanagar (Odisha): The National Farmers Day was marked with taking the Kisan rally around the district to spread awareness about sustainable organic and yogic farming. The inauguration of this rally was done in the presence of BK Santoshini and the Agricultural Officer of the Bhanjanagar sub-division.

Neelanchal Nagar, Brahmapur (Odisha): 75 years of India's Independence was marked with National Farmers Day celebrations at Brahma Kumaris Neelanchal Nagar center where BK Prashansa addressed the farmers and aspired them about the Sustainable Organic and Yogic Farming project of Brahma Kumaris

Borigumma (Odisha): The program of National Farmers Day was held in the presence of BK Parbati and guest K.C Patro

Jagannath Prasad (Odisha): BK sister Archana apprised the farmers to practice organic yogic farming. The discussion on the various projects of Brahma Kumaris Agriculture and Rural Development Wing.

KS Nagar, Magurapunja (Odisha): Under the guidance of BK Sugyani, a National Farmers Day event was held. It was aimed to promote organic yogic farming and spread awareness about the harmful effects of chemical usage in farms

Nabarangpur (Odisha): With lighting the divine lamp, the dignitaries and BK Sisters inaugurated the National Farmers Day program. On this occasion, the dignitaries and farmers were honoured with a felicitation shawl Nabarangpur (Odisha): The National Farmers Day was observed at Divya Jyoti Bhawan of Brahma Kumaris. About 100 farmers and agriculture officers of the Nabarangpur district attended the programme. The guests of the occasion were Kamal Lochan Nayak, Asst. Director of Agriculture, Nabarangpur; Dr Ayurdehi Mishra, Chief District Agriculture Officer (CDAO), Nabarangpur; Dr Prudush Kumar Panda, Dy. Director, Horticulture, Nabarangpur. BK Neelam, Nabarangpur Sub-zone Incharge described the need of meditation and the use of organic products in agriculture to improve the quality of food grains.

Bahadajhola (Odisha): National Farmers day was marked with BK Sister Laxmi presenting godly gifts to farmers and the Village head.

Gopalpur (Odisha): Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav was celebrated by organizing a program for farmers on National Farmers Day. Sister Sanghamitra, brother Rabindra Nath Das and sister Puspanjali Behera were present on this occasion.

Koraput (Odisha): Farmers practising Yogic and Organic farming were felicitated on National Farmers Day by the Brahma Kumaris Koraput.

PUNJAB

Ludhiana (Punjab): Brahma Kumaris Felicitated Farmers, Village Head and Agriculture Officers on National Farmers Day at their retreat center Vishwa Shanti Sandan located in Village Jhande. Dr Rajinder Pal Singh Aulakh, Agriculture Officer of Department of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare in Ludhiana; Mr Manpreet Singh Grewal, President of PAU Organic Farmers Group, Punjab; Agriculture Development officers Dr Pardeep Singh Tiwana and Dr Veerpal Kaur; Dr Raman Chopra, Agriculture Extension officer, Ludhiana (Punjab); Agriculture Sub Inspector Mr Sandeep Singh, Olympian Jagroop Singh Jarkhar, Sports Journalist and Hockey Coach from Jarkhar Stadium were among the dignitaries who participated in the program

RAJASTHAN

Dobra, Jhalawar (Rajasthan): BK Tapaswini and BK Leena Didi addressed the farmers saying they are the pride and strength of our Nation. Farmers were motivated to do organic yogic farming

Jhalawar (Rajasthan): Brahma Kumaris Jhalawar center Gyanodaya Bhawan celebrated National Farmers Day in the presence of Patanjali Kisan Seva Samiti President Parmanand Patidar. Farmers were honoured on this occasion. Brahma Kumaris Jhalawar Incharge BK Meena addressed the farmers as the pride of the nation. Spiritual farming methods were shared

Mandar (Rajasthan): Brahma Kumaris Mandar held a program for farmers in Sorada Mahadev temple, Sorda village. Coordinator of Agriculture and Rural Development Wing from Mount Abu BK Shashikant, BK Geeta from Bhinmal, BK Shail, BK Kirti, Mandar Sarpanch Parbat Singh, and Sorda Sarpanch Lehra Ram addressed the farmers and encouraged them to do organic yogic farming.

Dag, Jhalawar (Rajasthan): Harnawada Village Committee President Gopal Singh, & BK Neha inaugurated the Farmers Day program by lighting a divine lamp. Farmers were felicitated on this occasion

Aklara, Jhalawar (Rajasthan): BK Kesar from Mangata village of Aklara tehsil of Jhalawar district explained the various aspects of sustainable organic and yogic farming and also inspired them for the daily practice of Rajyoga meditation

Alpura, Gudamalani (Rajasthan): Progressive farmers were honoured in the event organized to celebrate National Farmers Day. Advocate Chandraprakash Sharma addressed the gathering and Assistant Administrative Officer Laxminarayan appreciated the farmers work. Shri Ram Bagh Temple Priest Dhanraj Sharma emphasized on doing yogic farming along with organic farming

Jhalawar (Rajasthan): Farmers were honoured in Sunel village of Jhalawar where BK Nisha motivated farmers to adopt sustainable organic and yogic practices in farming. BK Savita addressed the farmers as food donors

Rupbas, Bharatpur (Rajasthan): Sarpanch of Chakora Veer Bahadur Singh, village Mandal Committee member Brother Sunil, Farmer Leader Harbhan Singh and retired former Panchayat Extension Officer Jagdish Joshi graced the occasion of the National Farmers Day program. The program was held under the guidance of Bharatpur service center Incharge BK Kavita and Rupbas service center Incharge BK Babita. Farmers were presented with godly gifts and Brahma Kumaris agricultural literature.

Bali (Rajasthan): Celebrating the National Farmers Day and the 75 year of India's Independence as Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav, the farmers were given a message to become self-reliant. Special guest Former Municipal Chairman and Bali Trade Cooperative Society Ltd. Chairman Lakma Ram Chaudhari addressed the gathering. Former Municipal President Jagram Chaudhary, Senior Lawyer brother Kamal and brother Mali also shared their views. Center Incharge BK Sneha welcomed and honoured all the dignitaries and farmers

Singoli (Rajasthan): Municipal President Sunita Mehta was present in the program as the chief guest. She appreciated and expressed her gratitude for the project of sustainable yogic farming and other social services by the Brahma Kumaris

Aklara, Jhalawar (Rajasthan): Dr Kalyan Goyal, Parmanand Suman, Hiralal and other farmers graced the occasion. Center Incharge BK Kesar deliberated about organic farming and the sustainable yogic farming project being run by the Brahma Kumaris Agriculture and Rural Development Wing.

Rupbas (Bharatpur, Rajasthan): National Farmers Day program was organized under the guidance of Bharatpur service center Incharge BK Kavita and Rupbas service center Incharge BK Babita. Sarpanch of Chakora Village council Veer Bahadur Singh, Panchayat Mandal Committee member Brother Sunil along with Farmer Leader Brother Harbhan Singh and retired former Panchayat Extension Officer Jagdish Joshi graced the occasion as the main guest.

Raniwara Khurd, Jalor (Rajasthan): Brahma Kumaris branch of Raniwara Khurd organized a program for farmers on the occasion of National Farmers Day. Rajyoga Teacher BK Geeta was the keynote speaker and addressed the gathering about sustainable organic and yogic farming.

Sarolakala, Jhalawar (Rajasthan): The National Farmers Day program was inaugurated with lighting the divine lamp. Balram Meena Kanungo explained the details about yogic farming and Sarolakala Village Head also addressed the gathering. Brother Gautam, brother Bhanwarlal, brother Durgal and women farmers were present on this occasion. A brief description of yogic farming was given through a pictorial exhibition. Everyone was presented with the Brahma Kumaris Gyanamrit Hindi Monthly Magazine

Khatola, Tonk (Rajasthan): The grand inauguration of a newly built Brahma Kumaris Atmanirbhar Rajrishi Krishi Farm (Self-reliant Rajrishi Agricultural Farm based on sustainable yogic methods) located in village Khatola, was concluded in the presence of Vice-Chairperson and Coordinator of Agriculture and Rural Development Wing BK Raju and BK Sumanth, Rajyogini BK Chandrakala, former Agriculture and Animal Husbandry Minister Prabhu Lal Saini and the director of this farm model BK Prahlad. Hemraj Nagar, President of Akhil Bhartiya Dhakad Mahasabha was also present on the occasion. Progressive farmers were felicitated.

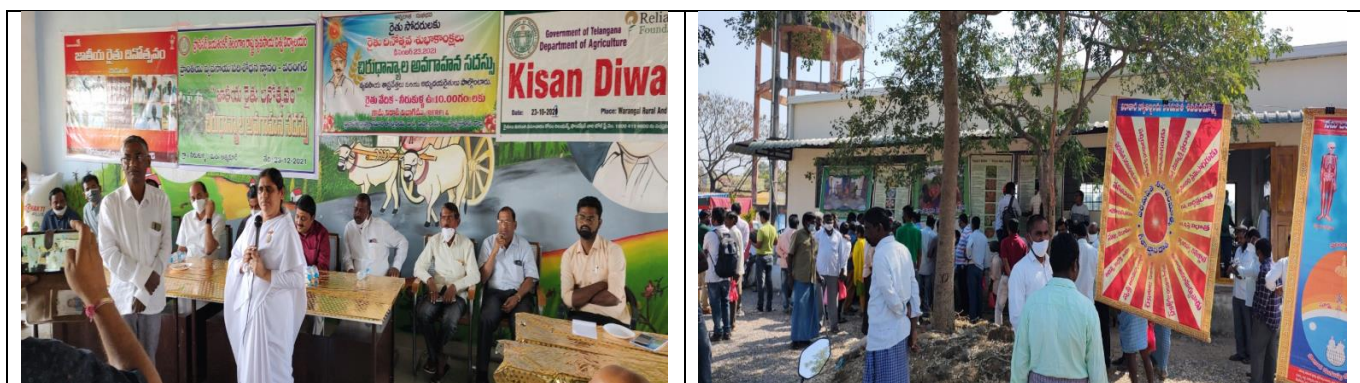

Ajmer (Rajasthan): BK Sanchita held Rajyoga meditation session and deliberated the importance of spirituality in farming. Village Head Hari Singh Jat and farmers were honoured with dupatta. Hanuman Khoja and many farmers were present on this occasion.

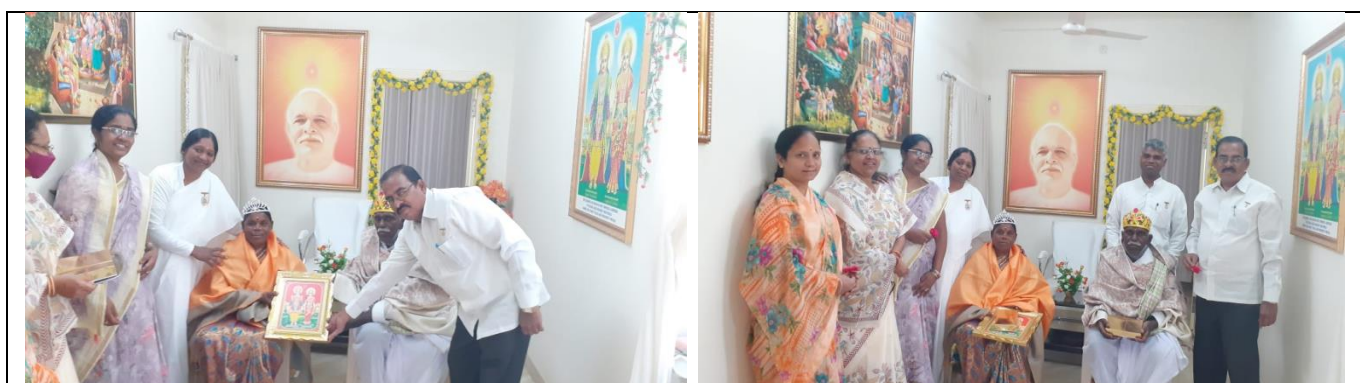

Tabiji, Ajmer (Rajasthan): Village head Rajendra Gaina and Agriculture Officer Pashupati Nath were the main guest of the occasion. Agriculture Officer Pashupati Nath stressed the importance of organic farming and BK Asha highlighted the significance of being in a positive mood while farming. BK Asha and BK Sanchita honoured farmers with an offering of a shawl to them. The program was well coordinated by BK Om Prakash.

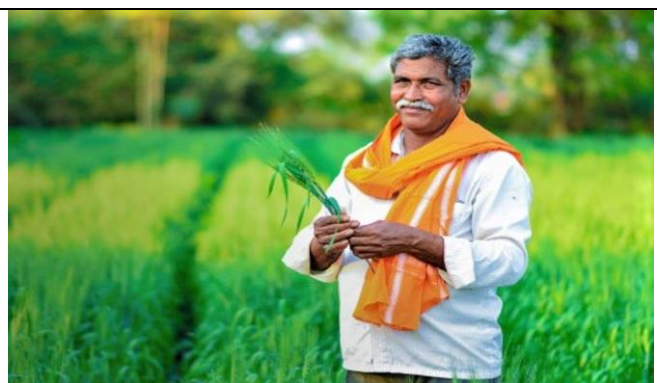

TELANGANA

Nerukulla (Telangana): B.K Vimala of Diamond House in Hanamkonda and The Village Councillor P. Narayana of Nerukulla conducted a farmer's felicitation program on National Farmers Day. Famous Agricultural Scientists and hundreds of farmers attended the program. Agricultural Scientist Subbha Rao Garu and Uma Reddy Garu addressed his views on organic farming. After the conference, hundreds of farmers listened the photo exhibition of Brahma Kumaris.

Ramachandrapuram, Hyderabad (Telangana): Farmers felicitation program was organized at the Brahma Kumaris service center where BK Padma and BK Ganesh honoured farmers with godly gifts and a shawl.

Zaheerabad (Telangana): State Rural Development Coordinator Usha Bain, Petroleum Conservation Research Association official Raju, Zaheerabad Krishi Kendra (Agricultural Center) Officer Suresh, Agricultural Extension Officer Pradeep Kumar and Zaheerabad representatives graced the National Farmers Day program held by the Brahma Kumaris of Zaheerabad. BK Usha shared organic yogic farming benefits. Farmers and dignitaries were honoured with a felicitation shawl.

Bibinagar, Hyderabad (Telangana): At the Brahmakumari Bibinagar Peace Retreat Center (Meerpeth) in Hyderabad, the Farmer's Felicitation Ceremony was organized in which around 600 farmers participated. Collector, ZP Chairman, MLA, Former Election Commissioner, Agricultural Scientists, Agriculture Officers, Village Head and other dignitaries were mainly present. BK Sarla Didi and BK Sunita Didi addressed the gathering.

Adilabad (Telangana): National Farmers Day was celebrated with spiritual fervour in the divine presence of Sister Revati. Farmers and other participants were enlightened to practice Rajyoga meditation for getting a healthy crop yield.

Kamareddy (Telangana): Four District Farmers and around 30 others were honoured for their significant contribution to Agriculture. Kamareddy District Agricultural Officer Bhagya Laxmi and Armoor Turmeric Farmers Association president Kotapati Narsimham Naidu came as the main guests. BK Jaya made farmers and all others present take the pledge of doing organic farming and practice a yogic lifestyle

Nagulapeta, Korutla (Telangana): The invited farmers were felicitated on National Farmers Day in the presence of sister Rajeshwari. Everyone was apprised about the long term benefits of organic yogic farming

Nizamabad (Telangana): Brahma Kumaris celebrated National Farmers Day with great zeal. The dignitaries and progressive farmers were honoured on this occasion and the project of sustainable yogic farming of Brahma Kumaris was introduced to them. Sister Sunitha was present on this occasion.

Chandrappa, Sangareddy (Telangana): About 40 farmers were felicitated in this event which was attended by the farmer's association President Mr Narsaiah Goud, Village head Mr Raghava Goud, MPTC member and District Agricultural Officer Mr Chaitanya. BK Adi Laxmi, BK Arundhati, BK Padma, BK Ganesh and BK Prabhakar reflected on the importance of organic cultivation & sustainable yogic farming to the farmers.

Sadasivpet, Sangareddy (Telangana): The National Farmers Day was celebrated at Panchacharya Basava Seva Sadan, Telangana. Pillodi Jayamma, Chair Person, Sadashivpet; Rajeshwar Rao Deshpande, Sangareddy Constituency BJP Incharge; Raghavender Reddy from Raithu Rakshana Samithi; Dr Shivappa; T. PruthviRaj, Telangana Manjeera Raithu Samakya & Committee Member were the guest of the program. Sangareddy Brahma Kumaris Incharge BK Sumangala bestowed her blessings and shared the benefits of organic yogic farming

Vanasthalipuram (Hyderabad, Telangana): A program for farmers was arranged by the Brahma Kumaris of Vanasthalipuram, which was held in the divine presence of sister Sujatha. On this occasion, Brahma Kumaris greeted the guest and farmers with godly gifts and a shawl.

Vemulawada, Rajanna Sircilla (Telangana): Sharing the benefits of organic yogic farming and felicitating progressive farmers marked National Farmers Day by the Brahma Kumaris of Vemulawada. Sister Rama was present on this occasion

Gadwal (Telangana): Progressive farmers were honoured on National Farmers Day by the Brahma Kumaris of Gadwal. Farmers were apprised about the sustainable yogic farming project of Brahma Kumaris Agriculture and Rural Development Wing

UTTAR PRADESH

Kasganj (Uttar Pradesh): Brahma Kumaris installed an agricultural exhibition in the farmers fair organized by the Uttar Pradesh Government in the premises of the Block Development Office which availed hundreds of farmers. District Magistrate of Kasganj Harshita Mathur and MLA Devendra Singh Rajput also visited the exhibition and were presented the godly gift. A seminar was also conducted by the Agriculture Department on this occasion wherein BK Lata on behalf of the Brahma Kumaris organization expressed her views on the Brahma Kumaris project of Sustainable Yogic Farming.

Aonla, Bareilly (Uttar Pradesh): In the program organized on National Farmers Day, CO Aonla Chaman Singh, Blockhead Aarti Yadav, many village Heads and hundreds of Farmers participated. Chief guests, village heads and farmers were adorned with a turban as a mark of honour by BK Parvati and BK Neeta

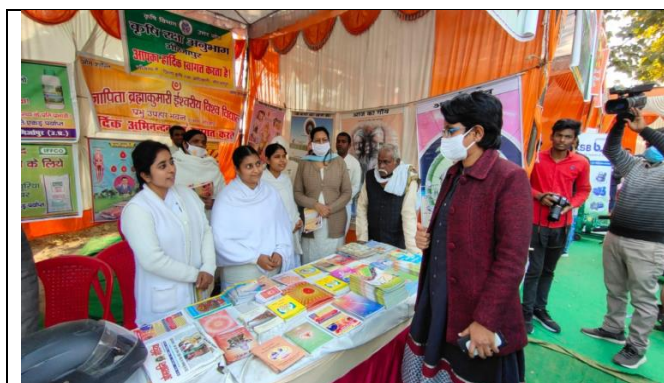

Kalyanpur, Kanpur (Uttar Pradesh): Regional MLA Bhagwati Prasad Sagar, ADG Rajesh, Former Health Director Dr Ram Babu, and hundreds of Farmers participated in the program organized by the Brahma Kumaris on National Farmers Day. BK Uma Behen and BK Neelam Behen honoured more than 100 farmers. Senior Brother BK Prakash well contributed in coordinating the program.

Etah (Uttar Pradesh): Brahma Kumaris celebrated National Farmers Day with great zeal. Farmers practising yogic organic farming were honoured. Brother Rajendra from Palwal, Haryana also graced the occasion.

Nanora, Mahoba (Uttar Pradesh): In the Farmers Day program, Sanjay Giri Mahant, Dr Satish Gupta, Dr Niranjana Dixit, Nagaich, social worker Neeraj Mishra, Bharat Tiwari, Narendra Yadav, Pawan Soni and Raju Mishra, Nirdosh Dixit were present as the special guest. BK Shweta gave the welcome speech, BK Angoori conducted the stage and BK Anju and BK Roshni welcomed everyone with badges. At the end of the program, everyone took the pledge to practice natural ways of farming. A short guided meditation session was also held.

Mirzapur (Uttar Pradesh): A district-level farmer's fair and agricultural exhibition was organized by the government where the Brahma Kumaris was invited by the Agriculture Department. The stall was visited by Mirzapur DM Praveen Lakshkar and Chief Development Officer Lakshmi VS. While stating from the government forum, Incharge of Mirzapur Brahma Kumaris center BK Bindu inspired the farmers for yogic farming.

Navpura, Agra (Uttar Pradesh): Many farmers availed themselves of the program organized by the Brahma Kumaris Navpura. Brahma Kumaris center Incharge BK Madhu honoured the farmers and motivated them for organic yogic farming.

Chunar (Uttar Pradesh): Farmers doing organic farming were honoured. BK Sisters apprised farmers about the method and benefits of organic and yogic farming. Also, in the program organized in Padri, Brahma Kumaris Sisters met the state's Cabinet Minister Rita Bahuguna Joshi and shared with her the details of the sustainable yogic farming project of the Brahma kumaris and presented her with godly gifts.

Piparsand, Sarojini Nagar (Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh): In farmers felicitation program, Dr AK Srivastava, Subject Matter Specialist of Directorate of Agriculture, Uttar Pradesh; Assistant Director Badri Vishal Tiwari, BJP State Council member Bhuvnendra Pratap Singh, Farmer leader Shiv Kumar Singh, Village head Pipersand Rajendra Patel, Incharge of Brahma Kumaris center Vishwa Kalyani Bhawan, BK Indira and Chinhat Brahma Kumaris Incharge BK Nandini were present. Farmers were motivated for organic yogic farming. Special honour was given to the farmers doing chemical-free farming.

Gonda (Uttar Pradesh): More than 100 farmers were honoured by the former MLA Suraj Singh. Center Incharge B.K Chandni, B.K Shalini, B.K Ragini and B.K Rakesh shared the significance of sustainable yogic farming.

Mirzapur (Uttar Pradesh): National Farmers Day program was held at Prabhu Uphaar Bhawan, the Brahma Kumaris center in Mirzapur. BK Pradeep reflected on the projects being undertaken by the Agriculture and Rural Development Wing of Brahma Kumaris. On this occasion, Former Agriculture Officer Rajendra Tiwari, Author and Poet Anand Amit, and 10 Farmer brothers and sisters who did organic yogic farming were honoured with Brahma Kumaris agricultural literature by Incharge of Brahma Kumaris Mirzapur BK Vindu. Divisional Sports Officer sister Bhanu Prasad was present as the chief guest.

Deoband, Saharanpur (Uttar Pradesh): National Farmers Day program was organized in the village Meghrajpur in which BK Parul spoke her inspiring words on the significance of organic yogic farming. 50 farmers were honoured with garlands. Village head Ratan Singh inaugurated the program and appreciated Brahma Kumaris for their work in the field of Agriculture

Padri (Uttar Pradesh): The information on sustainable yogic farming was shared on National Farmers Day. The farmers were felicitated by the Brahma Kumaris branch of Padri.

Sadabad, Hathras (Uttar Pradesh): The chief guest in the program former chairman of Mursan, Girraj Kishore Sharma addressed the gathering. Agra regional Incharge BK Sheela deliberated on the importance of sustainable practices in farming. Agra regional co-Incharge BK Kavita was the keynote speaker. Local service center Incharge BK Bhawna bestowed her blessings upon farmers for their hard work. As a mark of honour, farmers were adorned with a turban

Nawabganj, Gonda (Uttar Pradesh): On National Farmers Day, an awareness session on sustainable organic yogic farming was organized at Shiv Vardani Bhawan in which the dignitaries Arun Kumar Soni from the Department of Agriculture and Virendra Yadav BTM gave detailed information on the benefits of organic farming. Nawabganj Director BK Rekha shared her inspirations. Farmers using organic methods in their fields were felicitated

Padrauna (Uttar Pradesh): At Shiv Jyoti Bhawan, the program for farmers was organized on National Farmers Day. BK Meera honoured progressive farmers Anand Tiwari, Harigovind Mishra, Mahendra Mani, Virendra Tiwari, Umesh Gupta, Markandey Rai, Pramod Mall and others. District President of Indian Farmers Association Anand Tiwari shared his inspirations around the theme of organic farming.

Nawabganj, Gonda (Uttar Pradesh): On National Farmers Day, an awareness session on sustainable organic yogic farming was organized at Shiv Vardani Bhawan in which the dignitaries Arun Kumar Soni from the Department of Agriculture and Virendra Yadav BTM gave detailed information on the benefits of organic farming. Nawabganj Director BK Rekha shared her inspirations. Farmers using organic methods in their fields were felicitated.

Barhaj (Uttar Pradesh): The Chief Guest of the occasion was Block Development Officer Chandrabhushan Yadav. Radheshyam Choudhary, Incharge of seed warehouse Barhaj, appreciated the efforts of Brahma Kumaris for bringing agricultural awareness. Senior Rajyoga Teacher BK Jyoti inspired farmers to do organic yogic farming. Brahma Kumaris Barhaj Director B.K. Reena Behen apprised farmers about the significance of sustainable yogic farming. 80 farmers were honoured with floral garlands on this occasion.

Azamgarh (Uttar Pradesh): In the Azamgarh National Agriculture Development Scheme program, BK Anita shared with all about the sustainable yogic farming project of the Brahma Kumaris Agriculture and Rural Development Wing. BK Ranjana honoured District Horticulture Officer Mamta Yadav by presenting her with the Brahma Kumaris yogic farming literature.

Salempur (Uttar Pradesh): Farmers were honoured on National Farmers Day which was addressed by Block Chief Amresh Singh. Brahma Kumaris Salempur Incharge BK Jyoti urged farmers to increase the crop yield through natural organic methods and meditation. B.K. Ranveer Singh highlighted the importance of organic and yogic farming. About 100 farmers were honoured with floral garlands. On this occasion, Dr Nityanand Kushwaha, many village heads and farmers from the local village were present.